

REINBERGER IS APPOINTED TO ADVISORY BD.

The Adams County commissioners today appointed Rev. Francis E. Reinberger to fill a vacancy on the Citizens' Advisory Board of the Adams County Home.

The vacancy resulted from the resignation of Dr. John D. Anderson, Fairfield, R. 1, who had served on the board since it was set up on a permanent basis in April, 1960. Dr. Anderson's resignation was accepted with regret on December 4 by the commissioners, who commented on his "past helpfulness and untiring effort" in behalf of the advisory board. He is currently recuperating at his home after a long hospitalization in the Polyclinic Hospital, Harrisburg.

Mr. Reinberger is Elizabeth Graff Professor of Practical Theology at the local seminary.

The present advisory board includes: Chairman, A. W. Butterfield; secretary, Donald G. Oyler; personnel committee, Rev. Nevin R. Frantz, Arendtsville; Dr. C. G. Crist and George E. Kane, Biglerville R. 2; off-premises care committee, Mrs. E. A. Deily, East Berlin and Mrs. George E. Kane; membership committee, Lee M. Hartman and Mrs. Robert Kenworthy.

For the last several months the board has been engaged, among other duties, in the preparing of suggested standards, criteria and levels of remuneration for foster home care for submission to the county commissioners for their consideration.

3 DIESELS HIT LOADED TRUCK IN NEW OXFORD

Damage totaled thousands of dollars and one man was injured when a tractor-trailer, loaded with 18 tons of coke, and a Western Maryland freight train collided in New Oxford at 12:01 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Injured was Ervin Rabenstein, Spring Grove R. 3, truck salesman for Peterman Pontiac Co., Hanover, who suffered face and mouth injuries when the cable of a tow truck parted as he attempted to pull the demolished trailer from the railroad tracks.

Removed to the Hanover Hospital he was treated for a cut on the forehead and injuries about the mouth, and then was removed to a dentist's office for treatment for several teeth driven up into the gums and the loss of several teeth. His head and mouth struck the steering wheel of a tow truck he was driving when the cable parted. The front of the tow truck had been lifted into the air in the attempt to move the trailer and when the cable parted, the front end of the tow truck dropped to the ground, causing Rabenstein's head to snap against the steering wheel.

STALLED ON TRACKS

The accident occurred, according to New Oxford Police Chief H. S. Bentzel and Western Maryland Railway Detective Milton Tipton, when Orville McCleary, Stewartstown, was seeking to drive across the railway tracks at the Reed Foundry in New Oxford. He was using a narrow private driveway off Hanover St. in New Oxford to take the coke to the foundry when his vehicle became mired in a ditch along the driveway, stalling it across the railroad tracks.

About that moment an eastbound four-diesel engine railway train

Katanga Forces Ready For Military Showdown With UN

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—Both the United Nations and Katanga moved in reinforcements to Elisabethville on Tuesday, apparently preparing for a military showdown.

Fresh Katanga troops moved in from the north and U.S. Globemasters from Leopoldville brought in 216 Swedish soldiers newly arrived from Europe.

Katanga Gen. Norbert Moke said he planned to take the offensive soon against the U.N. forces, though he acknowledged the superiority of the U.N. weapons and jet air force. The number of Katanga reinforcements was not stated.

2,000 TROOPS MOVE

New violence threatened in Kivu Province, north of Katanga. Two thousand troops from the Congo's Oriental Province were reported moving in to attempt to take over Kivu. Provincial government sources said the troops belong to

Eisenhower Talks In Lansing Today

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower presented the Michigan State Constitutional Convention with an outline of his philosophy on federal-state relationships in Lansing today.

The plane carrying Eisenhower touched down at Lansing's Capital City Airport at 9:50 a.m. A crowd of about 300 was on hand to greet him.

Eisenhower's appearance before the Michigan Con-Con Assembly was the former chief executive's first such address to a state constitutional convention.

Brisk winds and sub-freezing temperatures greeted the former President after his morning flight from Pennsylvania.

K.C. TO MEET

The Gettysburg Knights of Columbus will meet Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at their home in the Weaver Building, Lincoln Square.

"OPERATION SNOW CALL" READY TO GO

"Operation Snow Call" is ready to function at the drop of a snowflake this winter.

School officials throughout the minute highway information on which to base decisions on the opening or closing of schools when highway travel becomes dangerous, difficult or impossible.

The county superintendent's office has prepared a sheet of names and telephone numbers of nine district school officials in all parts of the county, the telephone number of the state highway office here and WGET.

In case snows begin at night or highway conditions become dangerous during the night, the list of schoolmen will get calls at 6 a.m. with road information. If the decision is to close the schools, the radio station, bus drivers and other persons involved will be called within each school district.

WGET's facilities will be available each morning when it comes on the air at 6 o'clock, to broadcast highway information and to announce school plans.

The plan developed last winter when record snows closed schools several times during the winter and pupils and teachers alike depended upon WGET broadcasts to let them know whether schools were to be open or closed.

WILL PRESENT XMAS CONCERT ON THURSDAY

The Mount St. Mary's Seminary Schola Cantorum under the direction of the Rev. Dr. David W. Shaum, professor of music, will present its annual Christmas concert in the college chapel Thursday at 8 p.m.

The program in song and verse will open with greetings from Rt. Rev. George D. Mulcahy, rector of the seminary, followed by the chorus singing Handel's "Repleti Sunt Omnes."

The first part of the program, The Promise, will feature Handel's "Comfort Ye, My People" from The Messiah, with Benjamin Cueto, tenor soloist; Handel's "For Behold Darkness Shall Cover the Earth," also from The Messiah, with Francis X. Callahan, basso, and "Come To Deliver Us" and "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel," Gregorian numbers.

GUEST ARTISTS

The second part, The Fulfillment, will present Praetorius' "Lo, How a Rose E'er Blooming"; Stone's "Angels We Have Heard on High"; Handel's "For Unto Us a Child Is Born," from The Messiah; Davison's "In Dulce Jubilo"; Gounod's "Naxos," with violinist Joseph Chalkier.

The program will conclude with benediction and the congregation singing "Adeste Fideles" and "Tantum Ergo." The chorus will close the program with the Hallelujah Chorus from The Messiah.

Guest artists for the program are Robert E. Romoser, harpsichordist; Joseph Chalkier, piano; Price, first violin; Edward Arrington and Carroll Crum, second violins; Judi David, cello, and Richard Hill and Bernard Switzer, trumpets.

Stuart T. Wilson will serve as organist and Francis C. O'Brien as lector.

The program annually attracts a large crowd and is open to the public.

Two Choruses Sing Sunday Evening

A Christmas program entitled, "The Reason for Christmas," will be presented Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Bethel Menonite Church, Biglerville Rd.

Music will be provided by the Junior and Adult Choruses of the church, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Muselman. Other special music will be rendered by Misses Carolyn Muselman, Cheryl Shaffer and Elaine Shaffer. Various songs, exercises and recitations will be given by members of the Sunday School. Richard Shaffer will serve as reader.

The public is invited to attend this service.

More Centennial Plans Discussed

Further plans for publication of a history of Adams County in the Civil War, for an observance of the 100th anniversary of the encampment of the Porter Guards here and for observance next October of Stuart's raid on Fairfield and Cashtown were discussed Tuesday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Civil War Centennial Commission at the courthouse.

Dr. Charles Glatfelter, of the faculty of Gettysburg College and chairman of the history writing committee of the commission, listed plans to have a history available "by about May 30, 1963."

Chairman W. Clayton Jester reported contacts with officials of an Elmira, N.Y., historical society in connection with plans to honor the Porter Guards here February 1. The program will be held in the courthouse on the date of the presentation of the regimental colors to the Porter Guards here in 1862. The guards came here from Elmira.

Jester also reported on contacts with a Chambersburg riding club which plans to join with the county commission in marking the Confederate cavalry raid into Franklin and Adams Counties in October 1862.

"OSCAR" Radio Robot Is Orbiting Around World Beeping "Hi" To Many Hams

There are a number of radio hams in Gettysburg and Adams County but none are equipped to receive the "beep." It requires a two-meter set whereas the equipment in this area is of the 6, 10, 15 and 20-meter type.

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE

BASE, Calif. (AP)—OSCAR, a 10-pound radio robot, is orbiting the world, beeping "hi" to radio hams from Byrdland, Antarctica, to Kodiak, Alaska.

OSCAR—short for Orbiting Satellite Carrying Amateur Radio—was launched Tuesday aboard a Discoverer satellite and about 90 minutes later was transmitting the four dots and two dots that spell "hi" in Morse code.

The Discoverer 36 satellite also carried its usual cargo—a capsule of secret instruments that will be ejected within a few days. The Air Force has planes ready to snag the capsule as it parachutes near Hawaii—a feat achieved seven times to date. Three other capsules have been fished from the ocean.

Most of the attention is centered on OSCAR—carried aloft in the rocket's tail in place of ballast. The capsule is in the nose cone.

OSCAR, the world's first satellite built entirely by private citizens, will transmit for about 30 days, or as long as its batteries last.

It was conceived and built by space engineers whose hobby is tinkering with short-wave radio. Project chairman M. C. Towns of Sunnyvale, Calif., said this was the first time a satellite has transmitted on the international amateur frequency of 145 megacycles.

NO OFFICIAL TIES

The Air Force has no official connection with the project.

Project sponsors say future OSCARs, if approved by the Air Force, could open up new lines of communications in national emergencies.

All the world's amateur radio operators—about 300,000—have been invited to help track OSCAR.

Three Treated At Warner Hospital

Three persons were treated at the Warner Hospital Tuesday for minor injuries.

Mrs. Frank Dunham, 43, Taneytown, an employee of the Smith Bakery, was treated for the amputation of the end of the left index finger after her finger became caught in a machine while at work; Ellen Sponseller, two, daughter of Mrs. Jan Sponseller, R. 4, received treatment for a laceration of the right index finger which was caught in a door, and Richard Sullivan, 28, McKnightstown, an employee of the C. H. Musselman Co., received treatment for a contusion of the right great toe.

TWO COUPLES USE ONE XMAS CARD 22 YEARS

Two couples, one in Gettysburg and the other in Pittston, friends for many years, have exchanged the same Scotch Christmas card for 22 years. Both couples are Americans, not Scotch.

It all started as a joke back in 1939.

In December, 1939, Mr. and Mrs. LaTorre, Pittston, Pa., the latter the former Miss Dorothy Small, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter Small, mailed an unsigned Christmas card to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sease and family, 135 Chambersburg St.

The face of the card was that of a Scotchman tooting a bagpipe. It was inscribed: "This card brings many wishes for the Xmas and New Year, and though it cost nary a penny, a long ten page letter couldn't say my wish better. May your New Year be finer than any."

START EXCHANGE

Attached to the colorful card was another on which had been written: "P. S. Here's another swell part of this bargain. My name's on just one card you see, so keep the other and when Christmas comes 'round again, you can send it back to me."

The Seases, not to be outdone, recognized the author's handwriting, returned the card the following year and added a special message. Accompanying it was a long letter containing local news of interest to the LaTorses.

And so the exchange of the same card started. The following year the LaTorses returned the card with a written message and a long letter. Then the Seases returned it the following year and

2 Accidents Are Checked By Police

Two cars collided Tuesday night at 7:10 o'clock at the intersection of a township road with the Sun-shine Trail, near Fountaineau. State police said Kenneth Ray Runkles, 26, Thurmont, was traveling south and Archie G. Naugle Jr., 44, Fairfield R. 1, west when the two cars crashed. Damage was estimated at $100 to each vehicle. No one was injured.

In an accident at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning five miles east of here on the Lincoln Highway, Carl Schneider, 53, Harrisburg, escaped injury, according to state police, when his car went off the Lincoln Highway and struck a utility pole. Damage to the car was estimated at $400. Police are continuing their investigation.

SHOWS SLIDES ON GREEK TRIP

Dr. Frederick Shaffer, professor of Greek at Gettysburg College, Tuesday evening showed slides of his recent trip to Athens, Greece, at the weekly meeting of the Exchange Club in the Lamp Post Tea Room.

Dr. Shaffer said Athens is about as large as Philadelphia and the people there are very friendly.

Dr. Shaffer's slides were primarily on the architecture and sculpture of the Greeks. He noted in showing many ancient Greek theaters that they were responsible for all the drama in the world today. He included slides of the world-famous Acropolis and Parthenon.

He said he also had the opportunity while in Greece to visit a Rotary Club where he compared the Gettysburg Address with Pericles' Funeral Oration, speaking in modern Greek, as the two great expressions of literary work in world democracy.

Twenty-three members attended with Vice President Edmund Thomas Jr. in charge. Thomas named Robert Ziegler, chairman; Crosby Hartzell and Frank Grot to a ladies' night committee.

Demand Death Penalty For Convicted Adolf Eichmann

JERUSALEM (AP)—The State of Israel demanded death today for Adolf Eichmann, the Gestapo colonel convicted of major complicity in Hitler's plot to exterminate the Jews.

Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner told the special Israeli tribunal which found Eichmann guilty of capital crimes against the Jews: "There can be no sentence for him and no other."

Hausner did not specify the method. That will be decided by the court if it condemns Eichmann, Israel's basic law follows the British practice, which would mean hanging.

GENOCIDE CHARGE

The attorney general based his entire demand for death on a simple charge—genocide. That is the word the United Nations adopted in 1946 as describing the Hitler Reich's plot to wipe out an entire race.

Six million of Europe's 11 million Jews died in what the Nazis called "the final solution to the Jewish problem."

Under the charge of genocide as it fits into Israel's special law of 1950 for punishment of Nazis and their collaborators, the attorney general said the death sentence "is the only punishment" possible.

In this manner, Hausner was meeting the question of whether

TO DISTRIBUTE BROCHURES ON GETTYSBURG

Decision to print 100,000 copies of a new "What to Do and See in Gettysburg" folders was made by the Gettysburg Travel Council at its meeting Tuesday evening at the Five Star Restaurant. The folders are scheduled to be printed by January 15.

William Warren, reporting on the plans for the "What to See and Do" brochure, also led a discussion on other types of brochures and folders that may be published during the year by the Travel Council.

Plans were made to send a number of the folders to the National Sportsmen's Show, the Philadelphia Motor Boat Show and the state Farm Show for distribution.

105 MEMBERS

Membership in the Travel Council was reported as 105.

President Kenneth Dick announced that members of the local Travel Council have been invited to attend the Virginia State Travel Council Convention to be held January 7, 8 and 9 at Arlington, Va. Members planning to attend are to notify the secretary, Mrs. John Adamik.

He also reported on plans of the South Central Pennsylvania Travel Council to be held January 24 at Gettysburg. He reported 200,000 folders listing the attractions in the South Central area, which includes Gettysburg, have been printed. Election of officers for the South Central area is scheduled to take place at the meeting January 24. Nominees are: President, Kenneth Dick; vice president, Robert Shoemaker, Lancaster, and secretary, Frank Burgess, Lancaster.

Each of the travel councils in the area has placed $600 in the South Central group, he reported. Of that amount about $500 from each will go toward printing the folders and $100 for advertising.

6 FILM PRINTS

The council voted to purchase six new prints of the film "A Story of Gettysburg" and named Walter B. Lane as chairman of a committee to remake portions of the present film to bring it up to date with recent additions to the tourist scene in the town.

A sum of $250 was set aside to make tape recordings on Gettysburg to be sent to radio stations throughout the nation. President Dick reported on plans to be proposed by the John B. Rogers Co. to the State Commission for the observance of the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Andrew Larson, Lee M. Hartman, Barton Hoppe, Nicholas Meligakes and William Warren were appointed to serve as a membership research committee.

Preliminary plans were announced for a ladies' night meeting at the Lamp Post Tea Room Wednesday, January 10, at which Marshall Tuckey will be host.

Two Cars Collide At Intersection

Two cars collided at the intersection of Chambersburg and Washington Sts. about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon causing $200 damage, borough police reported.

They said Lucille Knox, Gettysburg R. 2, driving a 1960 Oldsmobile west on Chambersburg St., attempted to turn south onto S. Washington St. when she collided with a 1956 Chevrolet driven by Charles S. Althoff, 402 Hanover St. Damage totaled $150 to the Chevrolet and $50 to the Oldsmobile, police said.

Dr. D. L. Beegle, Emmitsburg, and Dr. John Beegle, Baltimore, will attend the District 5 Pennsylvania Chiropractic Society meeting Thursday at the Dutch Pantry, Camp Hill. Harry C. Kennedy Jr., secretary of the Harrisburg Chamber of Commerce, will speak.

The Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its annual Christmas party Thursday evening at the American Legion home. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock, followed by a program and gift exchange. Mrs. Conway Williams is in charge of reservations.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the YWCA was held Monday evening with the President, Mrs. Willard S. Paul, presiding. Devotions on the Advent season were conducted. Mark Eckert, house chairman, reported on the addition of a small room to the Y-Teen room. Mrs. Roy Hammond, program chairman, announced the following plans: Needlework afternoon in January; card party and milliner style show in February; shoe-covering workshop and covered dish luncheon for members and friends in March; beginners bridge classes scheduled to start in February; should there be enough requests, there will be a class in duplicate bridge. Rev. Lena Paar reported for the religious emphasis committee. The resignation of Miss Anna Shryock, world fellowship chairman, was accepted with regret. She has entered Shippensburg State College. Subscriptions to Guide Post and Readers' Digest were announced as Christmas gifts to the Y from Mrs. Frank H. Kramer.

The retiring officers of the Gettysburg YWCA Garden Club will entertain the newly elected officers at a social meeting Thursday at 8 o'clock at the Y. It was previously stated that the retiring officers will be entertained by the newly elected officers.

The Friday Afternoon Literary Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Reginald Deitz, 116 Hay St. The program on "Christmas Music" will be presented at 2:30 o'clock by Mrs. John Glenn.

A living Christmas card was the feature of the program for the regular monthly meeting of the WSCS of the Methodist church, Tuesday evening in Fellowship Hall of the church. Opening devotions were led by Miss Anna Clapsaddle. Mrs. Richard Deener read a brief meditation of Christmas cards, following which youths of the church enacted a living Christmas card of the Nativity. Jacqueline Jackson portrayed Mary; Jeffrey Naugle, Joseph; Glenn Hankey, shepherd; Linda Clapsaddle, angel; Virginia Glenny, cow; and Steve Weybrant, donkey. Each character gave a recitation of their part in the Christmas story. To close the program, Miss Virginia Lee Dear-dorff played and sang "Silent Night."

A brief business meeting followed the program. It was voted to send a delegate to the UN convention next year. Reports of the various circle activities were presented and Mrs. Kenneth Reinhardt reported for the kitchen committee. Mrs. Robert Diehl, president, told of plans to reorganize the local Church Council of Women and asked for four members to represent the local society on the council. The meetings will be announced later. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. John Clapsaddle, chairman, Mrs. Donald Swiger and Mrs. Lila Craig.

The Alumnae Club of Alpha Xi Delta will hold a Christmas party this evening at 7 o'clock for the active members of Beta Chi chapter in the sorority room in Hanson Hall.

Circle II of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Julius Wells, Buford Ave., Friday at 8 o'clock for a Christmas party. Each member is to bring a 30-cent gift and a dozen cookies. Devotions will be led by Mrs. Jack Corbin.

The Campus Club held its Christmas Tea Tuesday at the home of Mrs. C. A. Hanson, Twin Oaks. The ladies who poured were Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, Mrs. John B. Zinn, Mrs. W. E. Tilberg and Mrs. W. C. Waltenyer. The next meeting will be held April 19.

The Women of the Moose met Tuesday evening at the Moose home with senior regent, Jean Keller, presiding with 35 members present. Social Service Chapter night was observed, with one new candidate enrolled, Teresa Swope. The program consisted of a poem "Memory Clings To These" by Kathryn Davies; a solo "Oh Holy Night" by Rosetta Johnson accompanied by Mrs. Marie Keller. The program concluded with Christmas carols by the entire group. The women will act as chaperons at the Christmas party Dec. 23 at 2:30 o'clock at the Moose home. The door prize was won by Sarah Schmitz; the chapter night award by Selma Yingling, and the good of the chapter award by Corn Halsey. After the meeting, Santa Claus distributed $1 exchange gifts and presented a treat from the chapter to those present. A covered dish supper was served. The next meeting will be held Dec. 26.

Those who ordered toys may secure them at the lodge office, York St.

The Mt. Joy Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Paul Waybright, R. 1, recently with 20 members and Mrs. Helen D. Tunison present. The topic for discussion was "Family Together—Holiday Fun." Several types of Christmas decorations easily made at home were demonstrated by Mrs. Tunison. Christmas gifts were exchanged after which refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Francis Walker, R. 1, January 26.

A group of Girl Scouts, under the direction of Mrs. Phiel, assisted in making beds and other household chores about the home; a group from St. James Lutheran Church, led by Miss Vestal Stallsmith, held services and gave fruit; the Children's Department of Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Bendersville, gave fruit, candy and cookies; members of the Lutheran Church of East Berlin conducted the November birthday party, presenting a program, refreshments and special gifts for those having birthdays during the month.

Preliminary plans were made to present a Communion set to the home by an organization from St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. Mrs. W. E. Jordan reported all of the guests well and have had flu shots.

Rev. C. Karns, retiring president, praised the activities of the various committees during the year and said that "this year was unusually eventful by the moving from the old home."

The auxiliary decided to purchase a parament to match the pulpit in the chapel.

Refuses To Beg For Mercy

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel

demand today that Adolf Eichmann die for his role in the Nazi slaughter of Jews and the former Gestapo colonel refused to beg for mercy.

"It is my profound conviction that I must suffer for others," Eichmann told the special Israeli tribunal. "I must carry the burden imposed on me by fate."

Biting his words off like a drill sergeant, the 55-year-old defendant scored his conviction as based on a "deception."

In a 20-minute prepared speech, Eichmann told the court he was a tool in a vast Nazi machine. Ever since the Hitler Reich collapsed, he said, other Nazis had shifted the blame for the extermination plot onto him. They are the liars, not he, Eichmann contended.

The three-man tribunal heard him out and then announced sentence will be passed Friday morning. There seemed little doubt that it will be the death penalty.

Allied Ministers Confer Today On Berlin Problem

By ARTHUR GAVSHON

PARIS (AP)—Foreign, finance and defense ministers of the North Atlantic Alliance met today for their annual review with the shadow of the Communist wall through Berlin looming long over them.

The 15-nation council was expected to give its blessing to a new U.S.-British attempt to reach preliminary terms with the Russians on Berlin through negotiations between their ambassadors in Moscow and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

U.S. Secretary of State Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home disclosed through aides late Tuesday night that, after two days of talks with French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville and West German Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder, they had softened French reservations about the wisdom of resuming the quest for a Berlin deal.

DE GAULLE SKEPTICAL

It was clear, however, that French President Charles de Gaulle still was not convinced that Western-initiated exchanges with Moscow would be worthwhile. For that reason the French plan to stay out of them, at least until a possible compromise shapes up.

U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, backed by British Ambassador Sir Frank Roberts, is expected to contact Gromyko early in the new year.

Other major issues facing the NATO ministers included:

1. Plans for giving European members some share in the political control of the use of tactical — not strategic — nuclear weapons.

SUBS FOR NATO

2. President Kennedy's proposal to assign five Polaris-carrying nuclear submarines to NATO, a proposal that raises the complex question of the alliance becoming a sort of nuclear power in its own right.

3. The drive of Gen. Lauris Norstad, supreme Allied commander in Europe, to fulfill the seven-year-old NATO target of 30 combat-ready divisions on the ground in Europe. With this force he hopes he could contain any Red assault without having to resort to massive nuclear reprisals. NATO's effective strength now stands at about 25 divisions.

4. British demands for a larger sharing of the alliance's expenditure on weapon research, development and production programs. The British have been agitating for financial aid, saying otherwise they may have to cut back their army of the Rhine. At 51,000 men, it already is about 4,000 below Britain's commitment to NATO and its armor needs modernizing.

5. Moves to provide a greater impetus for a coordinated civil defense program. The underlying idea is that the Russians might be inclined to believe the Allies are resolved to fight back if energetic action is taken to protect civilians against nuclear strikes.

Break Ground For New Post Office

Ground-breaking ceremonies were held Tuesday morning at the former A. Nevin Pomeroy property, 312 Lincoln Way East, Chambersburg, signaling the beginning of construction of a new $150,000 post office for Chambersburg. Target date for occupancy of the new building has been set for the end of next September.

At the same time, a stately home that escaped the torches of Confederate troops almost a century ago, entered its final days as a Chambersburg landmark. The mid-Victorian styled structure was built in 1859 by William McLellan, a prominent attorney of the Civil War period.

The property has been purchased by Sunshine Development, Inc., of Waynesboro, headed by Nickson W. Oyer. After demolition of the residence, the company will construct a 16,296 square-foot air conditioned post office which will be leased to the post office department.

STATE SEEKS DEATH PENALTY FOR SLAYING

LEBANON, Pa. (AP)—The Commonwealth pressed its case today for conviction of Arthur E. Linthurst, Levittown, accused of the Sept. 30 shooting of Charles W. Miller, 29.

Dist. Atty. James Whitman Tuesday asked the jury for a first degree murder conviction in the slaying. Miller was shot to death in his Myerstown R. 2 home.

Whitman called two persons he said were eyewitnesses to the slaying to testify as the trial opened Tuesday.

One of them was Mrs. Geraldine Leininger, 35, Palmyra. Also called to the stand was Mrs. Leininger's daughter Barbara Jean, 15, who was wounded in the leg by a shot allegedly fired by Linthurst. Both were in the Miller home at the time of the murder.

Mrs. Leininger is the aunt of Shirley Ann Linthurst, 19-year-old estranged wife of the defendant. He had been seeking her, the state claims, when he broke into the Miller home.

Both mother and daughter testified to being awakened by the sound of glass breaking in a downstairs window, of hearing conversation between Miller and Linthurst and of hearing shots.

The daughter said she saw flames coming from a gun she said was held by Linthurst.

ESTRANGED WIFE

Mrs. Leininger said Linthurst forced her to lure Shirley Ann to the home on a pretext of illness in the house, that he forced the whole group to drive to Reading looking for a hospital to treat Barbara Jean and that he subsequently left the Leiningers alone and departed with his wife.

Also testifying Tuesday was a private detective, William J. Donlen, Levittown, who said he was hired by Linthurst to find his wife and subsequently reported to his client that she was staying during the week at the Miller home. A Bristol hardware store employee, William Spickler, testified that Linthurst purchased a Colt

2 Embarrassed Women In Booth

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—City patrolmen Mickey Pyburn and Leon Musgrove were cruising in their patrol car when they received instructions.

"Car 1, go to 20th and Charlotte. There's a woman stuck in a telephone booth."

That was just half the story. There were two women.

"They were so embarrassed when we finally got the door open that they hardly stopped long enough to say anything to us," the officers said.

2 Local Men Get 4th K. C. Degree

Two officers of the Gettysburg council of the Knights of Columbus — Grand Knight Timothy Edward Farrell and Financial Secretary Edmund W. Thomas — received the fourth degree of the order in ceremonies held at Mount St. Mary's college, Emmitsburg, on Sunday.

Twenty-two third degree knights received the ultimate degree at the Maryland ceremony, most of the candidates being members of the college and seminary council at Mount Saint Mary's. Two members of the college faculty, acting president, the Rev. John L. Sheridan, and prefect of studies, the Rev. John Cogan, received the degrees.

Game Protector Reports Over 50 Deer Killed in County; No Accidents: More than 50 legal deer were killed in Adams county mountains during the 11 days of the open season that closed Saturday, according to an estimate made by R. C. Anderson, the county game protector. Not one hunting accident was reported during the open season on deer although the hunter population was very heavy on some days. Only three illegal kills were discovered.

School Board Elects Crist President 4th Time; Public To Inspect Building Jan. 8: Dr. C. G. Crist was re-elected president of the Gettysburg school board for his fourth consecutive term at the annual re-organization session of the board at the close of the regular December meeting Monday evening in the superintendent's office in the new north wing of the high school building. Arthur E. Hutchison was again chosen vice president. He begins his fourth term in that office. Neither man was opposed for the office.

20 Births, 14 Deaths in Town in November: The stark repeated his 1935 performance in Gettysburg in November, the records of A. W. Ramer, register of vital statistics for Gettysburg and four surrounding townships, show. Last month there were 20 births in Gettysburg and a total of 23 in the borough and the four townships. Exactly the same number was recorded in November of 1935.

Death claimed five more persons in the same area this November than in November of 1935. Last month there were 14 deaths in the district—14 in Gettysburg and two in Straban township. In November of last year the deaths totaled only 11 with 10 of them occurring in Gettysburg. The other was in Cumberland township.

Gamma Phi In National Group: Gamma Phi, one of the two sororities at Gettysburg college, was accepted Wednesday as a member of Chi Omega, a national fraternity.

Gamma Phi was organized in 1923 as a local sorority and when it becomes a national it will be the first national on the Gettysburg campus.

The induction ceremonies will take place January 9 and will be conducted by Mary L. Collins, president, and Mary C. Williams, treasurer, respectively, of Chi Omega. Four members from the Dickinson college chapter will assist.

Hurt Cranking Car: Frank M. Moore, Fairfield, received severe injuries to both legs Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock when the car which he was cranking in his garage jumped forward and pinned him against the garage wall. The car was in gear at the time.

Today's Talk

EXTRA THOUGHT

Of course there are those among the sons and daughters of men and women who are born geniuses.

But the biggest part of genius is being born with the urge to work, to investigate, and to carry things through to their conclusion. It is getting well started — and then going right on, turning neither to the right nor to the left — and knowing in your heart, through a message from your brain, that you are going to win out.

It's the extra thought that puts across the extra man. And so it is with development. A plan is flashed before your mind's eye. You have immediate reactions. A decision is registered. But not any too well on its own legs. You think again. The extra thought brings out the features. You know your man. You act with a surety.

These extra thoughts are errand boys. They bring back our suggestions from powers higher up and help us to be strong men and women ourselves.

The extra thoughts early in life put us on our right road. And when we are on our right road, these extra thoughts again render us service by fitting us for our destination itself.

As they say when one is angered, that it always pays to ten before making a move or saying anything, so does it always pay to hesitate and take extra thought on all important questions of life.

In going forward you always break new ground, but in going backward you merely retrace.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "K. O. H. Kindness."

Just Folks

REMINISCENCE

They'll be reading later on, when these troubled days have gone,

What we did and how we managed in our times of stress and doubt.

Men grown old and silver gray will be called upon to say

How we faced our difficulty; how we worked our problems out.

Just the other night I heard one recall what had occurred

Through the progress of his service and the journey of his years,

And he talked of trying days, when the future seemed a maze

Of despair and disappointment and a wilderness of fears.

"Yet to us, somehow," he said, "we still kept our eyes ahead;

Kept our faith in one another, and the panic came and went

And we saw our city grow to the splendors which we know,

And we learned through bleak disaster just what courage really meant."

As I listened there I seemed to behold, as one who dreamed,

The youngest at the table five and twenty years away,

Standing head erect and true, naming men courageous who Kept their faith and bravely mastered all the problems of today.

REP. WALTER WILL RETIRE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., says he will definitely retire from Congress after his current term "unless something unusual comes up."

Walter, commenting Tuesday after a half-hour meeting with President Kennedy, did not spell out what he considered unusual. But he brushed aside speculation the President had urged him to enter the race for House speaker by saying "I'm not running for anything."

Walter said he is adhering, at least for the moment, to his announcement last January that this term—his 15th—would be his last.

"I'VE HAD ENOUGH"

"After 30 years, I think maybe I've had enough," he said.

At the same time, Walter said that as chairman of the House Democratic caucus he would call a meeting of party members Jan. 9 to choose a new speaker and majority leader.

Walter said he will support for speaker Rep. John McCormack, D-Mass., party floor leader and acting speaker since the death last month of Sam Rayburn, D-Tex.

MACKLEY IS PRESIDENT OF JOINT BOARD

Election of officers took place at the brief session of the directors of the new Littlestown Joint School Board held Tuesday evening at the high school following the conclusion of the business of the old board. Wilbur E. Mackley was elected president and Fred W. Hartlaub was elected vice president. Supervising Principal Paul E. King was temporary chairman until election took place. The new board voted to continue having the monthly meeting on the second Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. during EST and at 8 p.m. during the months of DST. The new committees will be appointed at the January 9 meeting.

Prior to the meeting of the new board, the retiring president, Dale W. Starry, administered the oath of office and the loyalty oath to the following new members: Charles W. Weikert and Charles E. Rabenstein, borough; Roy Snyder, Mt. Pleasant Twp.; Clyde Miller and Kenneth Kroh, Union Twp.; also re-elected members Bernard Hess, Mt. Joy, and Fred Hartlaub, Mt. Pleasant. Mrs. Rhoda Gitt is a new member from Mt. Joy Twp.

Other directors in attendance at the old board meeting were George Worley, Laverne Worley, Clair Arter, David S. Kammerer, Ray T. Harner, Wade H. Brown, Glenn Bowers, Rex Maddox, C. Aaron Rohrbach, William Bense, James Reichart, Richard A. Maitland, Wilbur E. Mackley, Karl P. Bankert, Lloyd E. Crouse, secretary Henry E. Wiltman and principal Paul E. King.

ELECT TEACHER

The report of the treasurer, C. Aaron Rohrbach, revealed November receipts totaling $36,196.54 and November expenditures of $34,691.20. The final report of the building committee, presented by Lloyd E. Crouse, chairman, was accepted by the board. Ray T. Harner, for the teacher committee, recommended the election of Dorothy Deardorff Sites, Gettysburg, as a substitute junior and senior high school teacher in math and English for the remainder of the school year. The new teacher is a graduate of Hanover High School, of Shippensburg College and will begin her duties on December 18.

A discussion was held on the "deplorable condition" of Park Ave. Ext'd., and President Starry appointed Mr. Mackley to contact the borough and the school attorneys in an effort to reach an immediate agreement on completing this section of the street, as far as the driveway to the new high school building. The rough condition of the street has already cut and ruined two school bus tires beyond repair, and these will cost several hundred dollars to replace.

SELECT WINNER

The accumulative administration and operational reports were presented by the supervising principal. The third month of school ended November 30 with 50 days taught to date. The new shop teacher, Gordon Warner, reported for duty on December 11. Paul E. King and Frank E. Basehoar attended the regional meeting of administrators in Harrisburg when the order of business was a seminar in the interest of reorganization of school districts. Schools were closed November 23 and November 24 for Thanksgiving vacation.

The Athletic Council met on November 28 for the purpose of receiving reports on football programs for the year and to select the recipient of the A. G. Ealy Scholarship Award, which name will be released from the administrative office in the near future. The annual school chest drive for public charity was conducted in all schools when $29.35 was received in the high school and $32.45 in the elementary school. The Junior Red Cross drive netted $32.93 in the high school and $24 in the elementary school.

4 TEACHERS VISIT

The Student Council conducted a dress-up day on November 15 to which student response was excellent, it was reported by the high school principal, Frank E. Basehoar. The Drexel Institute Glee Club gave a concert for the student body on November 17 as part of their tour in southern Pennsylvania. Walter Whalen, educational development laboratories, held a reading demonstration and clinic on December 1 with Miss Dorothy Crabbs in charge of arrangements.

Four teachers, including the school nurse, from South Western visited the high school on December 4 as part of their school visitation program. Sally Brown was selected as the "Good Citizen" of LHS to be the recipient of the award given by the Daughters of the American Revolution, Gettysburg.

The elementary principal, John H. Riley, reported that individual pictures of all elementary students which were taken in October have been distributed this week. Progress reports for the children of Grades One and Two were distributed on Friday. These reports are made every 60 days, whereas the pupils of Grades

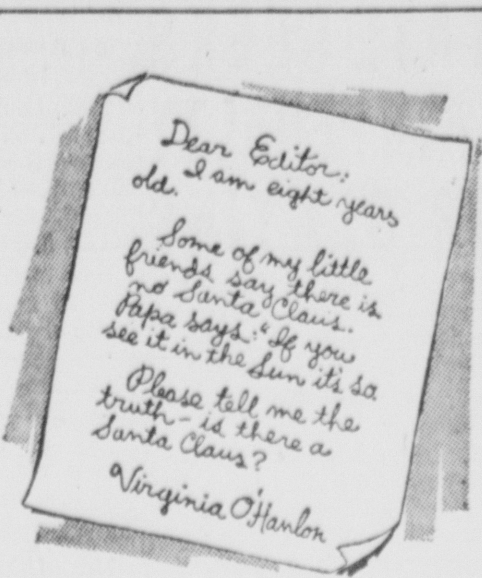

Yes, Virginia, There Is A Santa Claus ...

Sixty-one years ago, an eight-year-old girl posed a question to the editorial staff of the New York Sun. The newspaper's answer has become one of the Christmas season's classics. The little girl wanted to know simply, "Is there a Santa Claus?" and the answer is reprinted here, as it appeared in The Sun.

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole truth and knowledge.

Yes, Virginia, there is a Santa Claus. He exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist, and you know that they abound and give to your life its highest beauty and joy. Alas! How dreary would be the world if there were no Santa Claus! It would be as dreary as if there were no Virginias. There would be no childlike faith then, no poetry, no romance to make tolerable this existence. We should have no enjoyment, except in sense and sight. The eternal light with which childhood fills the world would be extinguished.

Not believe in Santa Claus! You might as well not believe in fairies! You might get your papa to hire men to watch in all the chimneys on Christmas Eve to catch Santa Claus, but even if they did not see Santa Claus coming down, what would that prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus, but that is no sign that there is no Santa Claus.

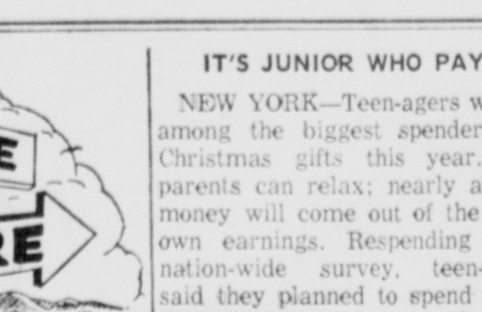

Virginia O'Hanlon's letter to The New York Sun is transcribed here, as an eight-year-old today might write it.

The most real things in the world are those that neither children or men can see. Did you ever see fairies dancing on the lawn? Of course not, but there's no proof that they are not there. Nobody conceives or images all the wonders there are unseen and unseeable in the world.

You tear apart the baby's rattle and see what makes the noise inside, but there is a veil covering the unseen world which not the strongest man, nor even the united strength of all the strongest men that ever lived, could tear apart. Only faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernatural beauty and glory beyond. Is it all real? Ah, Virginia, in all this world there is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus? Thank God! He lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

Christmas mails are gay with parcel post packages. Bearing gifts from friend to friend across the U.S., breakable contents are guarded by a familiar label: Fragile — Handle With Care.

More precious than china or glass, too fragile to withstand daily despair, are the lives and hopes of people facing heartbreak across the world. These, too, are protected in packages — CARE packages bringing food and tools to nourish the hungry, give them the vigor and means to help themselves.

For its feeding programs, CARE's annual Food Crusade appeal is now underway. It seeks to deliver 5,000,000 packages, in the names of Americans who donate $1 per package. Foods are mainly staples from our farm abundance. The gifts will reach distressed families and groups in 17 countries of Asia, Europe, Latin America and the Middle East.

Every dollar package you send means that hungry people will eat their fill knowing that people far away in the United States responded to their need, as friend to friend. No one can insure the route to peace on earth. Goodwill between men cannot be sealed and weighed. But the world moves closer to brotherhood every time one human being helps another, with CARE. Mail your holiday contribution to: CARE Food Crusade, 1123 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore Md.

20,182 MEALS

School Nurse Brenda B. Walker reported 20 home calls during the month and 155 first aid treatments in school; five pupils were referred to a doctor and four for x-ray. Dental examinations were completed in Grades One and Three by Dr. Richard M. Phreaner and physical examinations were also completed in Grade One by Dr. Leonard L. Potter. Thirty-four varsity basketball players were given examinations as required prior to participation in the sport. The general health of the pupils is good.

A total of 20,182 meals were served during 20 days in the cafeteria. The custodians reported very good care was taken of the auditorium during the first public entertainment there, sponsored by the Jaycees.

The truant officer reported four home calls made for pupils absent from school.

Prior to the conclusion of the old board's business, the outgoing president spoke briefly, extending appreciation for cooperation of the members during his administration. The new president, upon assuming his duties, also responded with appropriate remarks.

DRIVER CHARGED

Clifford Bunkley Philadelphia, was arrested by state police Tuesday on a warrant charging him with driving a car after his operating privileges had been suspended. Taken before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Cumberland Twp., Bunkley pleaded guilty and was sent to the county jail in default of $500 bail.

75 PERSONS AT FIRE AUXILIARY ANNUAL PARTY

Seventy-five persons, members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Alpha Fire Company and their guests, enjoyed the annual covered dish supper and Christmas party on Monday evening held at the engine house. Baked ham was provided by the unit and each member took a covered dish food for the meal. The invocation was given by Harry W. Badders. Gifts were exchanged by the members and gifts were presented to the guests. Carols were sung by the group, led by Mrs. Joan Rebert.

Mrs. Beverly Kobil, president, presented seven new firemen's coats to the company at an approximate cost of $200. Dennis W. Wallick, company president, accepted the coats with appropriate words of thanks. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be one week late due to the New Year holiday, and will be held Monday, January 8. The session will convene at 8:30 p.m., following the community preaching mission service.

TROOP PLANS PARTY

Plans were completed for a Christmas party at the meeting of Girl Scout Troop 777 on Tuesday after school at the engine house. The party will be held Tuesday at 3:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Ritter, Glenwyn Drive. Each girl is requested to take a $1 gift for exchange. Scouts unable to attend should send their gift. The refreshment committee includes Linda Blocher, Linda Bittle, Mary Lou Miller, Dianne Byers, Peggy Bair, Sally Mehning, Laren Krichen and Gaynelle Ritter. Members are asked by the leaders, Mrs. Chester S. Byers, Mrs. Clarence J. Krichen Jr. and Mrs. L. Robert Snyder, to take their personal health scrapbooks to the party. This will be the last gathering of the troop until after the holidays.

The Junior High Girls' Class of Redeemer's United Church of Christ will have a Christmas get-together in the form of a bowling party on Friday at 7 p.m. at Bankert's Alleys, N. Queen St. Mrs. Robert H. Miller is the class teacher.

The Littlestown Homemakers will have a Christmas party on Wednesday, Dec. 27, at 6:30 p.m. at a place to be announced.

Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion will hold its first December meeting at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at the post home, E. King St.

LISTS HOLIDAY EVENTS

The Rev. George Shultz Jr., pastor of St. Luke's Lutheran Church, near White Hall, has announced the schedule of holiday events as follows: Friday, 7 p.m., annual Christmas party for the children of St. Luke's Sunday School in Grace Lutheran parish hall, Two Taverns. The public is invited to attend a candlelight service on Sunday at 7:30 p.m. The service will be in charge of the Youth Fellowship and will include Scripture readings and songs.

Warriors Falter In Late Minutes To Lose 51-45; Westminster Here Friday

Although displaying a much better offense than shown in their opener, the Gettysburg High School Warriors suffered their second straight setback when they bowed 51-45 Tuesday evening at York Suburban. It was the first victory after two losses for the Trojans.

The Warriors threatened to pull the game from the fire early in the final period by taking a 45-43 lead before the Trojans spurred in the late moments to clinch the outcome.

Suburban took a 14-10 lead in the first period and widened the gap to 28-21 at half time.

Coach George Forney's lads started to come on in the third frame when they were paced by Tom Duane with seven points and going into the last quarter trailed only 36-35.

GHS GETS LEAD

Early in the last period the Warriors tied the score at 41-41 and again at 43-43. Then Dick Crist flipped in a goal to send Gettysburg in front 45-43.

Suburban fought back desperately to knot the score on a goal by Fred Kilgore and went ahead on a pair of foul conversions by the same lad. John Albright followed with another pair of foul tosses while the scoring was completed with a lay-up by Jack Gotwalt.

Spearheading the Gettysburg attack were Eddie Zeigler with 11 points, Crist and Duane with 10 each, John Mosebrook and Albright sank 13 and 11 for the Trojans.

Since Plum took over as No. 1 boy for Coach Paul Brown at Cleveland, the Browns have won only two of nine games with the Giants.

He led them to victory in 1957 just after he replaced Tommy O'Connell. He beat them again last December 48-34. Between the two victories, there were six straight defeats at the hands of New York. The Giants also beat Plum and the Browns on Nov. 26, 37-21, in Cleveland.

"The Giants are a challenge," said Plum in Cleveland. "They defense the Browns very well. When you play them you put a little something extra into it. They do the same with us."

GET SOME BREAKS

"I am sure they'll put plenty into it Sunday. They don't want to go into a tie playoff with Philadelphia. I saw the films of their first game with the Eagles and they got some breaks with the Eagles dropping passes."

The Browns need a victory over the Giants and a defeat for Philadelphia at Detroit to tie the Eagles for second. On the basis of comparative scores in their two games with the Eagles, the Browns then would go to the runner-up bowl game in Miami Jan. 6. Second place would be worth about $1,000 to each player.

The Cleveland-New York game at Yankee Stadium is the big one on the National Football League's day schedule Sunday. Philadelphia will be at Detroit with the Eagles needing a victory, plus a Giant defeat, to force a tie and a Dec. 24 playoff for the Eastern Division title.

Other last day games find Green Bay, which clinched the Western Crown Dec. 3, playing at Los Angeles, Pittsburgh at St. Louis, Minnesota at Chicago and Dallas at Washington. It will be the last chance this year for the Redskins to break into the win column. They are non-winners in their last 23 games.

One Saturday afternoon game finds Baltimore at San Francisco.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Quarterback Bobby Layne of the Pittsburgh Steelers was injured early Tuesday in the collision of his car and a stopped streetcar.

Layne was taken to Mercy Hospital. A hospital spokesman said the veteran professional football player received eight stitches for a cut above his left eye and was released.

DELONE BOWS TO TROJAN 5

Delone Catholic fell before the high-powered offense of the Chambersburg Trojans 82-53 Tuesday evening at Chambersburg.

The loss dropped the Delone record to 2-2 while Chambersburg upped its mark to 2-2.

Ten Trojan players broke into the scoring column and five hit in double figures.

Chambersburg sealed the verdict in the first half by racing off to a 21-9 lead and at half time was on top 39-22. A devastating third period when Chambersburg outscored the Squires 25-2 made a rout of the game.

Mike Conrad bore the brunt of the Delone offense with 18 tallies and Jim Livelsberger added nine. Carl Watson led the Trojans, also with 18.

The Trojan reserves won the preliminary game 40-26.

Delone plays its first home game after four on foreign courts when it meets Janover at McSherrytown Friday, evening.

Spearheading the Gettysburg attack were Eddie Zeigler with 11 points, Crist and Duane with 10 each, John Mosebrook and Albright sank 13 and 11 for the Trojans.

TRIPLE OVERTIME LOSS

In a thrilling triple overtime preliminary the Warrior reserves lost 46-44 when Ed Curry flipped in a long one-hander with five seconds remaining in the third extra period.

Bob Deitz led the well-balanced scoring for the local reserves with 10 points. Curry netted 17 for the winners.

The Warriors return to their home court Friday evening when they meet the veteran Westminster dribblers.

In the Tradition of Walter Camp, The Nation's Coaches Select the 72nd Annual All-America Football Team

The eastern half of the nation dominates the 1961 edition of the Original All-America as picked by ballots of the 2,000 members of the American Football Coaches Association. Syracuse's record breaking Halfback Ernie Davis, Ohio State Fullback Bob Ferguson and Colorado Guard Joe Romig are repeaters from last year's All-America.

The coaches' votes for the All-America team, sponsored for the second year by Eastman Kodak Company, were based on careful evaluation of each player's season performance, including the slow motion analysis of game movies.

Here is the 1961 first team of the Original All-America, inaugurated in 1889 by Yale's Walter Camp:

Roman Gabriel, q.b., North Carolina State

Ernie Davis, h.b., Syracuse

Jim Saxton, h.b., Texas

Bob Ferguson, f.b., Ohio State

Bob Mittinger, end, Penn State

Bill Neighbors, tackle, Alabama

Bob Bell, tackle, Minnesota

Gary Collins, end, Maryland

Joe Romig, guard, Colorado

Alex Kroll, center, Rutgers

Roy Winston, guard, Louisiana State

Lions To Train At Fort Eustis

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — Penn State's football team will depart for warmer climes next Monday morning to practice for its Dec. 30 Gator Bowl clash with Georgia Tech.

Coach Rip Engle said the team will travel to Fort Eustis, Va., for the week rather than risk inclement weather in the mountainous University Park area.

The team will leave from near Phillipsburg for the Virginia Army post. The club will return to Penn State on the 23rd and team members will go home for Christmas. The team will reassemble Dec. 26 to fly to Jacksonville, Fla. Prior to the bowl game the team will practice Dec. 26-29 at St. Augustine.

YANKEES HAVE BIG PAYROLL; UP SALARIES

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Roy Hamey, the man who handles the purse strings, says he wouldn't be surprised if the New York Yankees' 1962 payroll hit $800,000—an all-time high.

"That would be by far the biggest outlay of salaries we have ever had," the energetic general manager added today. "In the past, our salary figure hasn't gone much past the half-million dollar mark—not even in the Babe Ruth and Joe DiMaggio days."

"But now we have an unusual situation. We have several players who have made outstanding records. They expect to be rewarded, and rightly so."

The biggest grabs at the Yankee money bags may be made in the next few days.

Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Whitey Ford are in New York to push a new merchandising project. While around, they might as well start talking about money.

Mantle, whose $75,000 made him the highest paid player in the American League last year, conferred with Hamey Tuesday and has another front office conference today.

Mickey is expected to ask a boost to at least $85,000 and possibly to $90,000 for the .317 batting average and 54 home runs he contributed to the Yankees' winning cause last season.

Maris, whose 61 home runs made him the most talked-about player possibly since the days of Ruth, made a reported $45,000 last year and is said to be shooting for Mantle's salary area, which would be almost double his last paycheck. Ford, a 25-4 pitcher, is certain to demand a fat increase over his $35,000.

"Besides, we're in the biggest city of the country and we're champions. We're not complaining, understand. It's a nice fix to be in."

CANNERS LOSE TO WILDCATS

The Biglerville High Cannery fell behind 32-25 at half time and trailed thereafter in losing to the Mechanicsburg eagles 63-53 Tuesday evening on the Wildcats' floor.

It was nip and tuck in the first period when Mechanicsburg held a scant one-point margin at 15-14.

Coach Bernie Thrush's outfit rallied mildly in the final period but never seriously threatened their opponents.

Bill Sanni and Barry Trostle each connected for 11 points for the Cannery while Houser led the Cats with 17.

The Mechanicsburg reserves also triumphed, winning the preliminary 45-33.

Biglerville invades Boiling Springs Friday evening for its next game.

BERMUDIAN IS JOLTED 61-51

Bermudian Springs could not overcome an 18-6 deficit in the first quarter and bowed to unbeaten Spring Grove 61-51 Tuesday evening on the losers' floor.

The loss was the third in four outings for the Eagles while the Rockets notched their fourth in a row.

At half time Spring Grove held a commanding 35-19 lead and the Eagles could never get closer than nine points during the last half.

Craig Hoke and Tom Hardy racked up 16 and 12 points, respectively, for Bermudian. Spring Grove was led by Ross Welsh with 14 and John Trimmer with 12.

The Spring Grove reserves outclassed the Bermudian jayvees in the preliminary 54-19.

Next Tuesday Bermudian hosts St. Thomas when the Adams-Franklin League season opens.

Justice Releases Santa; Arrested Under 1794 Law

PENNDLE, Pa. (AP)—Santa Claus was haled into court, accused of breaking a law 167 years old, but almost before anyone could say "Rudolph the Red-nosed Reindeer" he was free as the north wind again.

The judge—a squire, or justice of the peace, really—who all along acted as if someone had mislaid the Christmas spirit, apologized Monday night to the ruddy defendant for all the fuss.

Santa, in the genial person of Earl Steger, 58, was arrested Sunday as he was listening to the kids pour out their holiday wishes at Butch's Discount Market.

Police Chief William Riempp and Sgt. Norman Rigby told him he was playing hooch with the blue laws, which forbid the sale of nonessentials on Sunday.

VIOLATED 1794 LAW

But to get Santa on that rap, since he was selling nothing, the authorities had to invoke the bluer code of 1794 rather than the revised version of 1959. Under the old, old law it is unlawful to be gainfully employed on Sunday.

Said Riempp: "The old blue law has never been repealed, and I have the option of making an arrest under either or both of these laws."

Four of St. Nick's helpers were cited on the same charge. Their cases are pending.

Agitation for a crackdown on blue law violators has been coming from a Bucks County ethical business practices committee. A spokesman for this group commented ruefully, however, that arresting Santa was more than had been bargained for, "making us look like Scrooges."

VERY EMBARRASSING

As Santa, arrayed in red suit and white whiskers, stood at the bar of justice, with his missus alongside him, Squire William Oettinger, 38, said: "This is very embarrassing."

The squire went on: "I've never had anything like this in my court before. Having Santa Claus arraigned, I mean. It is most upsetting."

Santa just stood silent, smiling wide, now and then folding Mrs. Santa's hand in his own.

His lawyer did the talking: "Your honor, my client shouldn't be here. Plainly, he is without guilt or guile. What crime is he charged with? I'll tell you—simply wanting to do good for children. Heinous, isn't it?"

After listening to both prosecution and defense, the squire hastened to say: "It gives me great honor to discharge this defendant. This is the last place Santa Claus belongs. Gainful employment, indeed! Everybody knows Santa gives, that he doesn't take." He shook hands with Santa and wife.

Steger, who has been Santa to thousands of children at the store in the last three years, is a building superintendent.

"I have a great love for children," he said, "and I'd probably play Santa even if I didn't get paid for it. The happiness of the kids is pay enough."

SECRETARY OF NAVY TO SEEK TEXAS OFFICE

By MIKE COCHRAN

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—John B. Connally, President Kennedy's first secretary of the Navy, will leave his post Dec. 20, come back to Texas and run for governor.

He disclosed his decision Monday. The President appointed Fred Korth, a Fort Worth banker, to succeed Connally as civilian head of the Navy.

Connally, 44, is a Fort Worth attorney. As a friend and confidant of Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and the late House Speaker Sam Rayburn, he long has been a background power in Texas politics. His move promised a scramble for Democratic party leadership in the state.

In Korth, 52, Kennedy picked another Democrat known to associates as "a cool veteran of Washington politics."

RECEIVED AWARD

Last June 2 Korth became an aide to Secretary of the Army Elvis S. Stahr Jr., primarily responsible for liaison with civilians on Army policy and missions.

Also a lawyer, Korth served with the Air Transport Command in World War II, attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel. He was named deputy counselor for the Army in 1951 and served as assistant secretary of the Army in 1952-53.

Korth received the Army's outstanding civilian service award in 1959. He was appointed a director ish, particularly the blemishes of acne, are often related.

A LOOK AT TEEN HAIR. If you have a skin problem, Miss Teen, look to your hair. An oily, flaking scalp and skin blemishes are often related.

Thus corrective hair care becomes as important as corrective complexion care. The first step in both is scrupulous cleanliness. In tending the hair that means washing brushes and combs at least once daily, and washing your locks at least once weekly.

Antidandruff shampoos act to remove flake, control surface oil and fight blemish-causing bacteria.

Other than proper shampoos, there are several aids to overcoming scalp troubles. One is a gentle brushing each day. Brushing stimulates circulation, which in turn improves the scalp's health.

The restful way to brush is to bend over and dangle your head toward the floor. The position naturally speeds circulation. It also keeps those ailing tresses from contact with your face.

And for the skin's good, contact should be avoided. Until the scalp normalizes, many experts recommend cleansing the skin after brushing and wearing the hair back from the face.

Now what else? Why the two D's—diet and doctor. Serious hair problems require professional advice, a doctor-prescribed diet and medication.

CLAIMS SOLON DRY LYNCHED HIS CLIENT

WASHINGTON (AP)—An attorney for a former union official told the Supreme Court Monday that Rep. Francis E. Walter, D-Pa., instituted a "dry lynching" when he called his client to testify before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

The attorney, Frank J. Donner, appeared before the court to argue the appeal of Jack T. Gojack, a former officer of the United Electrical Workers Union.

Gojack was convicted of contempt of Congress charges arising out of his refusal in 1955 to answer certain questions when called before the committee which Walter heads.

Donner, charging that Walter had announced in advance the committee intended to show Gojack and others were Communists said:

"The purpose of calling him was to expose him; to do him injury."

Kevin T. Maroney, Justice Department attorney, challenged Donner's views, saying the calling of Gojack was "not exposure for exposure's sake."

He said the committee had long been investigating infiltration of Communists into unions and had previous information and testimony that Communists had penetrated the electrical union.

WON'T OPPOSE U.S.-RED TALKS OVER BERLIN

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle Tuesday was reported still resisting all Allied efforts to draw him into joint negotiations with the Soviet Union on Berlin. But French officials said their leader does not intend blocking another American-led attempt to come to terms with Moscow.

The French position was reported as foreign ministers of the Big Four Western Allies moved into the second and final day of their conference seeking a unified policy, particularly on Germany.

Informants emphasized no announcement was likely of the plan for renewed American-Soviet exchanges until the matter is thoroughly aired in the North Atlantic Council of Foreign Ministers, beginning a three-day parley here Wednesday.

But the word from the French was that De Gaulle would not oppose a resumption of talks in Moscow between the Russians and U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, who expected to be entrusted again—as he was early in the fall—with the job of trying to hammer out main points of an East-West Berlin compromise.

Prospects for such a compromise appear slight. Even if Thompson does shape up a deal with the Russians, it would have to clear the veto France holds as one of three Western occupation powers in Berlin.

"Lights On For Safety"

Traffic Safety Commissioner O. D. Shipley announced today Pennsylvania is among the middle Atlantic states sponsoring a Christmas holiday highway "Lights On For Safety" campaign.

In an effort to alert drivers to the hazards of holiday travel, sponsoring agencies in middle Atlantic states are calling upon motorists to operate their motor vehicles with headlights on during daylight hours from December 22 through 25 and from December 29 through January 1.

Cooperating in "Lights On For Safety" are Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Virginia and the District of Columbia.

"This joint effort is designed to reduce the toll of death and injuries on our highways during the Yuletide season," said Shipley.

"Each illuminated headlight will serve as a special reminder for the exercise of extreme caution during a particularly dangerous period on our highways and streets."

Shipley urged Pennsylvanians to demonstrate their interest in safety by driving with headlights on during the 12-day "Lights On For Safety" campaign.

REDS WANT TO TRY GERMAN AS WAR CRIMINAL

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government demanded Tuesday that the United States hand over West German Gen. Adolf Heusinger, chairman of the permanent North Atlantic Treaty Organization military committee in Washington, for trial in Moscow as a war criminal.

The demand was made in a note delivered Tuesday to the U.S. Embassy and publicized before cameras and bright lights at a Foreign Ministry news conference.

Heusinger was accused of war crimes, crimes against the peace and crimes against humanity.

The Soviet government charged that Heusinger, who was chief of operations for the German general staff until the 1944 bomb plot against Hitler, "organized bloody reprisals against the civilian population" in the Soviet Union and that he issued instructions for punitive detachments "which sanctioned every possible atrocity in regard to the peaceful population."

Michael Kharlamov, press director of the Foreign Ministry, told the news conference Heusinger is now quartered in the Pentagon.

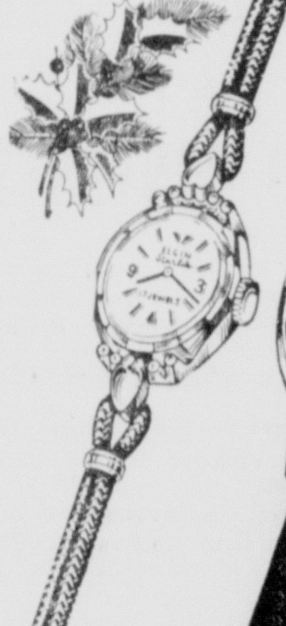

In Bonn, the West German government rejected the Soviet accusations as completely false and said it would never consent to his being turned over to Soviet authorities. A Foreign Ministry spokesman said the government had cleared Heusinger long ago and "this is just another Soviet propaganda move—another in a long series directed against West Germany in an attempt to blacken our reputation and alienate our allies in this time of international crisis."

Heusinger was arrested by the Western Allies after World War II, interned until 1948, but never brought to trial on war crimes charges. He has been a frequent Soviet target since he became the first chief of staff of West Germany's new armed forces in 1955.

SANTA and the FLYING SHOE

by Lucrece Beale

SYNOPSIS: King Ferdinand's appeal for help has been brought to Santa Claus by a little red-haired fairy who sweeps crumbs in the palace kitchen. Santa resolves to go go Polydora.

CHAPTER NINE SANTA AND THE SEEING EYE

"Oh, no!" cried Tweedledee in alarm. "You can't possibly go anywhere when there is such a short time before Christmas!"

"But I must," insisted Santa. "Listen to this and you will agree. Fitting the bits of paper together he read the letter from King Ferdinand telling about the visits of the frightening Ipswitch and the haunted palace and begging for help from Santa.

"These are strange goings-on," finished Santa. "The King of Polydora certainly needs help."

Mrs. Santa clucked her tongue. "It's only because you always like a mystery and you like to play detective," she fretted.

"That reminds me," said Santa with sudden inspiration. "I've just remembered the toy I was dreaming of a while ago. It was a Seeing Eye. Properly installed it would allow anyone to sit in his own room and see what is happening in another room—even one five floors below! Think how the children would love to have that for Christmas!"

"It would be wonderful!" exclaimed the little red-headed fairy who had come all the way from Polydora to bring Santa the letter from Ferdinand. "I might even be able to see who has been getting the kitchen crumbs ahead of me!"

"Very well—make the Seeing Eye!" snapped Tweedledee. "But you don't have to go to Polydora. Let the King solve his own mysteries."

"But think," said Santa. "If he doesn't solve it—this—this Ipswitch—or whatever it is—may take it into its head to come tramping through the North Pole. Then what would happen to Santa Land?" He took Tweedledee gently by the shoulder. "Come now, you can handle things while I am away. I'll be back before you know it." He paused and scratched the side of his nose. "Incidentally, I think I will just make up that Seeing Eye before I leave. Might come in handy."

He started out the door, then turned and stuck his head back in. "My dear," he said softly to Mrs. Santa, "it would be a shame to miss your Pineapple Upside Down Cake. Do you suppose I could have a wee piece to take with me when I go?"

"Oh, you!" Mrs. Santa laughed in spite of herself. "You always get your way!"

Santa grinned and hurried to his workshop. In a moment he was hard at work with blue prints, wires, mirrors, rubber tubes and magnifying glasses. The red-headed fairy sat on a tack box on top of Santa's work bench and watched.

"I guess you can make anything!" he said at last.

"Well, most anything, I suppose," agreed Santa.

"I wish you could make me a crumb sweeper," said the fairy wistfully. "Sometimes when I crawl around all night picking up crumbs in the palace kitchen I feel as if my back would break!"

Santa reached into his back pocket. "Try this," he said handing the fairy a soft rubbery magnet. "It picks up cake crumbs the way an ordinary magnet picks up metal. I made it as a

BING CROSBY IN PLEASANT SHOW ON TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Bing Crosby, on motion picture business in England recently, turned his trip to television's advantage. He converted a stroll through London into a pleasant, relaxed and decidedly off-beat variety hour.

Bing's Hollywood-made specials of other ABC seasons have been among the best. Monday night's, although completely different, maintained the same high standard of taste and gentle humor.

We first saw Bing wandering into a tea shop for a cup—and running into Dave King, the personable entertainer who was Perry Como's summer replacement. Aided by a pretty girl singer, Marian Ryan, they sang and clowned in this unusual setting. Then he roamed on, next encountering comedian Terry-Thomas playing a civil servant. Perhaps at this point, the comedy writers let both Bing and Terry-Thomas down a bit. Later there was a delightful number in a court room with a judge who was a jolly combination of the duchess in Alice in Wonderland and someone out of Gilbert and Sullivan.

Bing wound up in a pub, of course, with a brief appearance by Bob Hope. It was a real nice show.

NBC's David Brinkley, reporting the news during the dinner hour Monday night, used a forbidden five-letter word—although he was quoting a U.S. senator. Question: does language which routinely is edited out of dramatic shows by network censors as unfit for tender ears become fit in news reports? Lots of children watch news shows as well as cartoons and Westerns.

stocking gift for the mothers of small children.

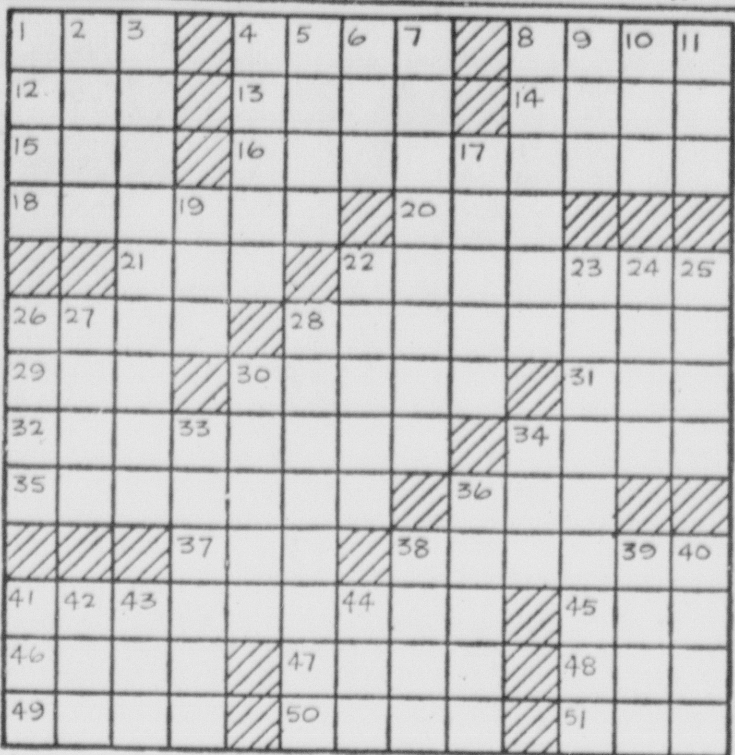

The little fairy climbed to the floor and dragged the magnet through the work shop. In an instant it was covered with crumbs that the Santa Land workers had dropped from their lunch. "Oh, boy! I've got it made!" cried the fairy happily.

Santa snipped some wire and put away his blue prints. "I have it made, too," he said. "Here is my Seeing Eye." And he folded up his new toy and put it into his pocket.

He rushed back to his house, packed a small bag and picked up the whole Pineapple Upside Down Cake Mrs. Santa had boxed for him. Then he set off for Polydora with the red-headed fairy riding inside his big black boot.

2 CHILDREN DIE IN BLAZE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A young brother and sister died Tuesday in a fire at their South Philadelphia home. Their mother escaped by jumping out a second floor window.

Firemen found the bodies of Edward Segal 9, and Karen, 3, in a front bedroom. They apparently had suffocated.

The mother, Marian, 31, had leaped from the bedroom window. Neighbors said she appeared for a moment in front of the window with the youngest child in her arms. Smoke blotted her from view and moments later she reappeared, without the child.

A neighbor quoted the hysterical mother as saying, "I thought

The following were present: Mrs. Dwight Strausbaugh Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wortz and son, Gregory; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wortz and daughters, Connie Lynn and Leslie Ann; Mr. and Mrs. John Fitz and son, Barry; Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Strausbaugh Jr. and daughter, Charlene; Miss Lorraine Wildasin and William Spence.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Musselman of Pittsburg, Kan., announce the birth of a daughter, Betsy Ann, December 1. The father is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Musselman, Main St.

Flowers on the altar of Zion Lutheran Church Sunday were placed in memory of Mrs. Emma Scherer by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Filsinger Jr.

Murray E. Stoner returned to the Veterans Administration Hospital, Baltimore, Monday.

FATALLY INJURED

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Charles George, 30, a construction equipment driver for the State Thruway Authority, was injured fatally Monday when he was crushed in the moving parts of a cement mixer on a bridge repair job near here. George lived in nearby Clarence.

I had my baby with me. I thought I jumped with her."

The father, Bernard, a tomato packer, had left for work a short time before the fire started. He said everything was in order when he left the home. The flames were confined to the first floor, but heat and smoke trapped the others.

AVERT STRIKE ON PARKING LOT

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A tentative agreement was reached Tuesday between Local 700 of the Transport Workers Union and the Sley System Garages, thus averting a threatened strike by some 500 parking lot and garage attendants at the firm's 49 facilities.

Terms of the contract were not disclosed pending ratification of the contract by the membership.

The local had threatened to strike at midnight but negotiations were continued on an hour-to-hour basis.

Robert E. Bailey, local president reported Monday the workers were seeking a one-year contract providing a reduction of the present 45-hour work week to 40 hours and pay increases averaging 48 cents an hour.

Present wage rates were not available.

Meanwhile, negotiations will be continued between the union and the Philadelphia Parking Lot Owners Association, which represents owners of 111 other parking facilities. This group had threatened to strike at midnight Sunday but postponed the threat for 30 days pending negotiations.

POCONO SUMMIT, Pa. (AP)—John Jedju, 37, was killed accidentally by a bullet Monday as he worked outside a building on his land along Route 940. Police said the bullet came from a rifle apparently fired by a hunter, identity unknown.

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower speaks Wednesday at Michigan State University. He will discuss the extent national and international conditions relate to the task of preparing a new state constitution.

MEMBERS OF TRI-HI-Y AT BHS ARE BUSY

Members of the Biglerville High School Senior Tri-Hi-Y are carrying out their motto of "Service to Others" in a number of ways.

This week they visited the county home to present Christmas gifts to the guests. The gifts included jewelry and ties donated to the group which were cleaned and gift-wrapped by the members of the club. In addition the members themselves donated games and puzzles to the guests at the home.

For their World Service project, the student group has pledged a CARE package a month for the next year to needy persons overseas. Among their school service has been donation of their time to serve as coat and hat check attendants for the school's recent dedication program, and donation of funds to plant shrubbery at the home.

Money for the activities is raised through various projects of the club.

Sheila Kime is president of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y for which Mrs. Charles R. Leader is advisor. Jean Moomaw is vice president; Charlotte Hall, secretary-treasurer, and Faye Hartzel, chaplain. Other members of the club are Peggy Hartman, Susie Garretson, Darlene Swartz, Mary Showers, Mary Guise, Lorrie Shultz, Tonya McClell, Lana Palmer, Carolyn Sabo, Barbara Thomas, Rita Schwartz, Joanne Black, Mary Ann Showers, Brenda Blocher, Jennie Sanni, Emily Diehl, Penny Wilders, Jayne Nelson, Linda Murto, Gloria Smeed, Carol Rex and Nancy Cashman.

YORK IMPERIAL HOLDS ITS LEAD

HARRISBURG — The York Imperial apple retained its production leadership in Pennsylvania commercial orchards this year, the State Crop Reporting Service said today.

York's harvest totaled 2,518,000 bushels, followed by Stayman at 1,735,000. In third place with 1,294,000 was Rome Beauty; fourth, Red Delicious, 1,098,000, and fifth, Golden Delicious, 755,000.

Other major varieties, in order of ranking, were: Jonathan, McIntosh, Cortland, Grimes, Spy, Black Twig (Paragon), Wealthy and Winesap.

Commercial apple production in Pennsylvania totaled 9,890,000 bushels during the 1961 season. This compares with 7,000,000 last year and 10,500,000 in 1959. Increased production for all major varieties more than offset any percentage declines for less popular varieties.

Nationally, the commercial ap-

so on the exchange has been going on for 22 years.

The front and back of the card, not too badly worn in view of the years of its travel, and the one blank inside contain messages written by each family, each year. There is still space for many more messages, said Mrs. Sease today when The Gettysburg Times asked to see the card.

GOOD FOR YEARS

"We can exchange this card for many years," she added.

When asked how the card was kept in such a fairly good condition, Mrs. Sease said: "We kept it in a safety deposit box until the following Christmas and then we took it out and mailed it again. We'll be doing this for a long time to come."

The two couples visited each other regularly but have not seen each other for three years. Each have two children, a boy and girl. The LaTorres' son was recently married.

To safeguard the card it is always sent by registered mail.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Graft, Abbotstown R. 1, sold a property in Hamilton Twp. for $11,000 to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Crown, York.

LETTERS OF ESTATE

The register and recorder granted testamentary letters to the Gettysburg National Bank in the estate of Myrtle V. Mickley, Franklin Twp., for the $4,800 worth of personal property.

Apple crop for 1961 totaled 125.5 million bushels, 16 per cent more than 196 and 12 per cent above average. Delicious was again the leading variety with 24 million bushels.

"DECORATIONS" ARE THEME FOR JUNIOR WOMEN

"Christmas Decorations" was the theme of the program presented at the December meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown held on Monday evening in the social room of the Eagles Home, W. King St. Mrs. J. Harvey Pettyjohn and Mrs. Chester S. Byers, of Koons' Florist, ably entertained their audience by making and relating ideas for holiday decorations and centerpieces for door, mantel, table, etc.

Mrs. Warren H. Wisotzkey, chairman of the cheer committee, presided for the program and displayed a variety of Christmas decorations which she and her committee had made. The cheer committee, which comprises Mrs. Wisotzkey, Mrs. Robert Kress, Mrs. William M. Ebaugh, Mrs. Robert W. Hall, Miss Betty Eckert, Mrs. Clarence L. Schwartz, Mrs. Robert B. Millheim, Mrs. William R. Keefer, Mrs. Robert Dillman, Mrs. Richard V. Emerson, and Mrs. Robert Morgret, also served refreshments during the social hour and conducted a coffee social prior to the business.

Miss Janet Phillips, president, presided for the business session which preceded the program, and announced a county extension service sewing course beginning January 23. Interested persons should contact Miss Phillips for the details. Following the pledge to the flag and the club collect, there were reports from Mrs. Jay Showmaker, secretary, and Miss Nancy Ooster, assistant treasurer. Other reports were heard from Mrs. Wisotzkey, on the cheer committee activities; Mrs. Paul F. Bolter, on the club shopping trip to Baltimore in November; Mrs. Herbert J. Sel, on the toy demonstration in October.

PACKING BASKET

The club is packing a Christmas basket for a needy family and donations of canned goods by the members should be left at the home of Mrs. Jay R. Crouse, Lumber St., on or before December 20. The club will participate in the local PTA sponsored Jabberwock on Saturday, January 27. Mrs. Joseph McMasters is chairman of the planning committee for the club's portion of the program. Plans will be furthered and rehearsals will follow for the Jabberwock after the holiday season.

Several projects, such as gadget and plastic ware sales, will begin during the new year. Another project for the benefit of the treasury will be traveling baskets. The standing committee chairmen will conduct these projects among the members of her committee. Members were urged to pay their dues for the 1961-1962 club year and to keep records in club sponsored events.

INTERCLUB NIGHT

Miss Phillips announced that the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Federation will be held May 23, 24 and 25 in Pittsburgh; there will also be an arts and crafts day in Altoona.

Guests present on Monday were Mrs. Mary Wolfe, Mrs. Dixie Mummert and Miss Pamela Hull. The next meeting of the club will be the annual observance of interclub night on Wednesday, January 24, when the Woman's Club of Littlestown and vicinity will be the hostess group. The affair will be held at the Eagles social room on the hostess club meeting night, with program and refreshments by the Woman's Club. In January, 1963, the Junior Woman's Club will be the hostess group.

WILL DELAY FINAL ORDER ON DU PONT

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal judge says he will not issue a final order in the antitrust case against the Du Pont Co. until he considers written briefs submitted by both sides.

Oral arguments are now under way by the government and Du Pont in the U.S. District Court of Judge Walter LaBuy who Tuesday refused a government request to issue the order on the basis of these arguments.

TO SET DATE

Judge LaBuy said written briefs are to be submitted by both sides after the oral arguments and that he then will set the date for his decision.

The request was made by Paul Owens, an antitrust attorney representing the government. Owens also opposed defense pleas for postponement of the decision until after Congress disposes of some tax legislation that would give some relief to Du Pont stockholders.

Under the proposed legislation, Owens said, Du Pont shareholders would receive shares of General Motors stock under the government's plan for divestiture by Du Pont of its GM stock.

ANOTHER INVOLVED

The U.S. Supreme Court upheld the government's demand that Du Pont dispose of its 63 million shares of GM stock and has di-

Extended forecasts for Dec. 14 through Dec. 18:

Western Pennsylvania — Temperatures will average 6 to 9 degrees below normal. Cold until turning warmer Sunday and Monday. Precipitation will average about one-tenth of an inch melted, occurring as snow flurries tonight and occasional snow about Friday.

Eastern Pennsylvania, southeastern New York and New Jersey — Temperatures are expected to average 2 to 10 degrees below normal. It will continue on the cold side into Thursday, moderating some Friday and turning colder again over the weekend. Precipitation may total one-tenth of an inch or less, occurring as scattered snow flurries about Friday and light precipitation about Sunday.

Middle Atlantic States — Temperatures will average 2 to 8 degrees below normal. Colder Thursday will be followed by warmer the first of the week. Precipitation amounts will average less than one-tenth of an inch, occurring as rain or snow about Sunday.

rected LaBuy to draft a final order against Du Pont.

The government also is seeking to have Christiana Securities Co., a Du Pont family holding concern, dispose of its 535,000 shares of GM stock.

The government attorney argued that disposition of the congressional legislation will "not resolve the principal issues in this case."

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States disagreed today with Britain's call for an immediate cease fire in the Congo. It said there should be no cease fire until minimum objectives of the United Nations have been reached in the African trouble spot.

Undersecretary of State George W. Ball set forth what he termed these "honest differences of opinion" at a special news conference on the Congo crisis.

U.S. Political Observers Forecast Storm Warnings For President Kennedy's New Onslaught For Congressional Program

EDITOR'S NOTE—Not surprisingly, Democrats and Republicans differ sharply in their estimates of President Kennedy's success with Congress in the past session. But political observers see storm warnings for key administration projects in the future. This is the third of five articles on the presidential performance to date.

By ARTHUR EDSON

WASHINGTON (AP)—A top administration official complained recently that many who blame the President for not taking a firmer stand with Congress expect too much to happen too soon.

"We've got a marathon race," he said, "not a hundred-yard dash."

Historically, he may be right. Politically, he could be wrong. For time is precisely what the President doesn't have enough of.

LOSES ILLUSIONS

High among them would have been the realization that, although the Democrats won Congress, he would have rough going in the House if the conservatives ganged up on him.

If Kennedy had any illusions, he lost them quickly. On the tough issues, his margin was so close that probably no other administration ever worked so hard, behind scenes, to get even a part of its program through Congress.

Since these laws are now on the record, it should be simple to grade this portion of Kennedy's report card.

But it isn't.

The Republican view: Dwight D. Eisenhower was a dam protecting the people from a flood of bad Democratic legislation. When he went out, the flood was bound to come no matter what Democrat moved into the White House. Little that Kennedy offered was new, and much of the legislation he pushed had been kicking around for years.

BUILD GOP LEVEES

But, these Republicans say, Kennedy never worked up much force of his own, so the GOP was able to build effective legislative levees.

Or, in the ornate phrases of Sen. Everett McKinley Dirksen, R-Ill., and Rep. Charles Halleck, R-Ind., who issued a joint statement:

"The hallmark of this 1961 legislative venture was failure—in leadership, in accomplishment, and in campaign promises filled. For this the American people can thank, in large measure, a sturdy band of outnumbered Republicans who fought through the session with considerable success for a beachhead of sanity in government."

CITE MANY BILLS

The Democratic view's that badly needed legislation, stalled by an Eisenhower veto, or the threat of one, has become law. Rarely, if ever, have so many new programs been planned and started.

If you visit a Cabinet officer, he will produce a list of bills passed and say something like this: "Why, we've done more for this department in 10 months than had been accomplished in the past 10 years."

Or, in the soothing prose of Rep. John McCormack, D-Mass.: "President Kennedy has had remarkable success with his recommendations."

WHERE TRUTH LIES

As usual, the truth lies between the partisan extremes.

Kennedy did get a wide and impressive variety of legislation through Congress in things from housing to minimum wages to help for depressed areas.

Republicans did tone down some New Frontier bills and block others.

But the past interests us mainly for what it may disclose about the future.

And from this the forecast reads: storms, increasing in intensity.

The reciprocal trade program, always a political powder keg, comes up for renewal. Kennedy still hasn't been able to do anything about the two points he pounded most frequently during the campaign: federal aid to education and medical aid for the aged under Social Security.

OTHER OBSTACLES

Education and medical aid fall to the beleaguered lot of Abraham Ribicoff, secretary of welfare. His large, pleasant office has become a major battleground for the New Frontier.

"Every controversy," Ribicoff said, "proudly if not quite accurately, 'is here.'"

Ribicoff is disappointed that more progress wasn't made—"I never worked so hard on anything in my life"—but he tries to be philosophical.

"The best reforms are a long time in coming," he said. "I'm a patient guy. You can't rush reforms too fast. It takes a lot of education to push a reform along—and sometimes out of defeat comes victory."

Ribicoff may be a patient guy, but he's impatient about some of his critics.

GETTING MAJORITY VOTE

"The doctrine can solve all problems on paper," he said. "He can solve all problems at a cocktail party. But he can't put out a program that can get a majority vote."

Getting a majority vote in the House can be quite a problem. Committees can be dismayingly balky.

By one expert's figuring—he was a Republican, by the way—if the bill finally reaches the floor here is what it faces: Democrats have 261 of the 457 seats, but 50 of them will vote with the GOP on economic issues. In return, only 15 to 20 Republicans are likely to peel off and support the administration. The key is some 27 Democrats who may float either way.

NEEDS GOP HELP

If 57 Democrats desert him, Kennedy is lost. On the close ones, he badly needs Republican help.

It's understandable why Kennedy has played it cautiously.

His assistants may have worked hard, but Kennedy has not fought publicly for his program.

He has not tried to put the heat on Congress.

He has not made anyone angry.

A man close to the President has put Kennedy's views this way: "When things are so bad internationally, in the interest of unity there are sacrifices that have to be made. There are things that can't be done now."

ANOTHER VERSION

Another version of this same viewpoint came out more bluntly: "There was no point in stirring up the animals."

But it is questionable whether Kennedy can get what he wants from Congress unless he whips up more support for his program. Only he can give it a sense of urgency.

Congress isn't likely to be much more liberal when it returns.

Too, a congressional election is coming up next year, and the party that controls the White House usually loses ground.

"Only the President of the United States can speak for this country," Kennedy said during the campaign. "Only the President of the United States can place before the American people the unfinished business of our society."

NEEDS TO FIGHT

Perhaps Kennedy will continue to feel that international affairs are so intense he can't afford to rock the political boat.

But this seems certain: If Kennedy is to achieve the goals he set for the home front, he will have to fight for them—and the animals will have to be stirred up.

Next: Kennedy: The Leader.

KENNEDY NEAR TOUCHY ISSUE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is nearing a politically touchy decision that could eliminate eight or ten Army National Guard and Reserve divisions, informed sources said today.

Backers of the plan believe the resulting reshuffle of manpower would permit building the remaining Guard and Reserve divisions close to full strength, thus making them more ready for active duty if needed.

The thinking reported is that the better rated divisions would be kept on the rolls, and the poorer ones dropped.

There now are 27 Guard divisions, two of them on active duty, plus 10 Reserve divisions.

There may be some reduction in the number of Guardsmen and reservists receiving drill pay. Anticipating the move, National

ROCKEFELLER DENIES HE WILL RESIGN OFFICE

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller—shaken in recent weeks by the tragic disappearance of his youngest son and by his impending divorce—vehemently denied Tuesday night a published report that he plans to leave public life.

In a statement authorized through his press secretary, the governor said he plans to complete his current term and to run for re-election next year. Rockefeller scheduled a top-level Republican conference in Albany on Dec. 27 to map 1962 campaign strategy.

Republican leaders in the state backed up the governor's statement.

Rockefeller has been widely mentioned as a potential GOP nominee for president in 1964.

Reports have been circulating for more than a week that Rockefeller would not seek reelection as governor.

In a copyright story Tuesday night, the New York Daily News said the governor had informed top GOP leaders of his intention not to run again and of the possibility he might resign even before his term ended.

In subsequent editions, the News also published Rockefeller's denial.

The News said Rockefeller's decision was based on the belief his impending divorce from Mrs. Rockefeller "will make it all but impossible, even if he gains the Republican nomination, to defeat an entrenched John F. Kennedy in 1964."

"In addition, Rockefeller is described as still deeply shaken by the tragic loss of his adventurous 23-year-old son, Michael, last month in New Guinea."

"Rockefeller's present plan, as reported, calls for him to press during the next session of the legislature, commencing Jan. 2, for enactment of his legislative program and to announce his resignation after the session's closing, which is usually late in March."

Guard and Reserve associations are preparing to rally congressional support in a fight to block any slash in divisions.

DIES AT 91

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Lena Snader, an aunt of John J. McCloy, President Kennedy's disarmament policy chief, died of a heart attack at her home in nearby Churchtown Tuesday night.

Her death came a short while after McCloy, a former high commissioner in Germany, arrived with his wife to help Mrs. Snader celebrate her birthday. She would have been 91 today.

See Cold Weather For Liberty Bowl

A Weather Bureau spokesman said no precipitation is forecast at this stage for Saturday. He

3-Point Goal Is Decisive Factor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The three-point field goal—a wrinkle introduced by the American Basketball League this year—figured decisively in the Los Angeles Jets' victory over the San Francisco Saints Tuesday night.

The Jets defeated the Saints 96-89 after Hawaii dropped Washington 84-81 in the opener of an ABL doubleheader.

There were the only league games scheduled.

The Saints, who trailed 45-43 at the half and 67-63 after three periods, pulled into a tie with four minutes to play. But a three-point shot by the Jets broke the tie.

A few light showers are forecast for Friday and Sunday.

The Liberty Bowl attendance last year was cut down to about 17,000 because of a heavy snowfall.

SAYS HUMANS LEARN FASTER BY PUNISHMENT

Sweet and bitter inducements to swift learning, fast-beating feminine hearts and the effects of high living standards on blood pressure are subjects in the medical news.

Various experiments have indicated that animals learn faster when they are punished for mistakes than when they are rewarded for correct responses. A combination of reward and punishment brings the best results.

But how about humans?

Drs. R. K. Penney and A. A. Lupton of Lancaster, Ont., Canada, ran 60 trials on children. The kids were told to distinguish between white and black sections painted on squares. A piece of candy was the reward for a correct answer. An incorrect answer triggered a loud, unpleasant noise.

Individual children in the punishment group heard only the noise from their mistakes. The rewarded group received candy only for correct answers. Children in the third group were given a combination of noise or candy, depending on the correctness of their answers.

The results as reported in the magazine Medical Science: unlike the animal tests, the combination goal by Dan Swartz put the Jets back in command and another three-pointer, by Larry Friend, clinched it with 45 seconds left.

Dave Mills led Hawaii in the opener with 28 points. Sylvester Blye scored 25 for Washington.

rewarded-punishment group ran a poor second. The punishment group was an easy winner and the reward group placed last.

A naval physician in a recruiting station in Los Angeles was puzzled to find heart murmurs in from 25 to 40 per cent of the Waves he examined. These murmurs were short and soft and varied with the position of the subject and the rate of her breathing. He rarely found these murmurs in men. So he queried the American Medical Association headquarters in Chicago.

An AMA consultant offered this opinion: there are some indications women have more murmurs than men the same age. But slight murmurs can be accentuated by rapid flow through the arteries. And a fast-beating heart speeds up blood flow.

The consultant said: "Young women seem to be more nervous than men on physical examinations, particularly in large examination centers with many people involved. This might account for the increased pulse rate, and, therefore, increased blood flow."

HIGH LIVING

High living may be the standard price, world over, for a high standard of living.

One of the latest studies linking these two factors was made in the Fiji Islands. The doctors found that a group of Indian men in Suva, Fiji, who enjoyed a relatively high standard of living had higher blood pressures than the local rural male population.

"There is a graduation in the incidence of high blood pressure among several races of the Pacific islands that parallels the degree to which they have been influenced by Western culture," said the doctors' report to the Journal of the American Medical Association.

Eichmann Guilty Of Every Charge Made By Israel

JERUSALEM (AP)—The special Israeli court concluded the reading of its judgment on Adolf Eichmann Tuesday with a summary finding the former Gestapo colonel guilty on all 15 counts of an indictment handed down last April.

The summation, preceded by detailed examination of Eichmann's role in the extermination of six million Jews in Europe, was a blanket verdict of guilty. The maximum penalty under a special Israeli law is death.

The three-man court convicted Eichmann Monday of capital crimes against the Jews, then proceeded to outline its views on the details.

SUPPORTS ALL CLAIMS

The conclusion supported every claim that Atty. Gen. Gideon Hausner placed against Eichmann after the former SS officer was captured in Argentina, flown here, interrogated, indicted and then tried.

At no time during the long reading did the judges say a good word for Eichmann and there was no evidence of mitigation in the entire 100,000-word judgment.

The counts charged Eichmann with joining the Nazi conspiracy to exterminate the Jews as a race, killing non-Jews as part of the forced labor program in Poland, contributing his help to the murder of Gypsies in the Hitler racial plan, helping to round up the children of Lidice in revenge for the assassination of Gestapo chief Reinhard Heydrich, plundering Jewish property and deliberately joining the Nazi SS, security police and Gestapo and full support of all such activities.

The defendant himself sat motionless as a statue. He heard over two days one judge after another destroy his defense that he was an unimportant cog in a big wheel and replace it with blanket conviction of Eichmann as a giant in a giant conspiracy.

The judgment determined that Eichmann, 55, knew of Hitler's plan to slaughter the Jews as early as June 1941.

The court said Eichmann helped to organize the extermination plan, was associated with the first murder squads and later with the supply line that shipped a special gas to the death camps.

The court said Eichmann was a worse criminal than the underlings who actually operated the gas chambers.

DIRECTORS TO OFFER REMAKES OF OLD MOVIES

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Two of Hollywood's all-time great directors are offering remakes of their old movies for the holiday trade.

This might be viewed as a sad commentary on the state of Hollywood's creativity. Failing to uncover enough new material, the studios are betting millions, if not their corporate futures, on reworkings of such already-told tales as "Mutiny on the Bounty," "Cleopatra," "The Four Horsemen," "State Fair," "King of Kings" and the like.

Going along with the trend are three-time Oscar winners William Wyler ("Mrs. Miniver," "Best Years of Our Lives," "Ben-Hur") and Frank Capra ("It Happened One Night," "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," "You Can't Take It With You.")

BACK TO 1936

Wyler reached back to 1936 for "These Three." This was the expurgated version of the Lillian Hellman play, "The Children's Hour." Wyler has returned to the original title and theme: How the reckless rumors of lesbianism can ruin the lives of two school-teachers.

The result is not for children, but it can be appreciated by adults as an intelligent exercise in human emotion. As with all Wyler films, "The Children's Hour" is beautifully acted, reflecting thought and taste.

Capra reached even further back—to his 1933 "Lady for a Day." The re-do is called "Pocketful of Miracles," and it is an all-out attempt to recreate a guileless era in American comedy.

GOOD NOSTALGIA

Some movie goers will find it wonderful nostalgia. Others will conclude that what was sure-fire in the 1930s doesn't necessarily click in the 1960s.

The plot is one of Damon Runyon's old fables: Apple Annie is a Broadway crone who finances her daughter's elegant European education. When the daughter comes home to introduce her rich fiancé,

To Receive James J. Walker Award

NEW YORK (AP)—Dr. Alexander Schiff, veteran medical chief for the New York Athletic Commission, has been named to receive the James J. Walker award for long and meritorious service to boxing.

The award was voted by members of the New York Boxing Writers Association.

The writers announced Tuesday that Gene Fullmer, NBA world middleweight champion from West Ogden, Utah, would receive the Edward J. Neil memorial plaque as "Fighter of the Year."

Both awards will be made at the writers' annual dinner here Jan. 15.

NO ROOM FOR GIRL FRIENDS IN TV SHOWS

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Faithful followers of CBS' "The Defenders" may be worrying about the state of the budding romance between Kenneth Preston, the young lawyer of the series, played by Robert Reed, and Joan Miller, the student social worker, played by Joan Hackett.

Miss Hackett has not appeared in recent episodes and the boy in the series has several times shown himself to be greatly attracted by other girls.

Last week Miss Hackett turned up—and received fine critical notices—as a young nun in "Come Again to Carthage." One could draw romantic inferences from that. Monday night Joan was playing a frightened epileptic on "Ben Casey." It won't be long before she turns up on the home screens—as a Mexican narcotics addict in a "New Breed" episode.

DRAW TO WRITERS

None of this means that Kenneth Preston loves Joan Miller less, however. It just means that a gangster sets up Annie as a grande dame and all of New York gets into the act.

As with all Capra films, the cast is laden with familiar faces. Best of the bunch are Peter Falk as a wisecracking hood and wonderful old Edward Everett Horton back in his butler's duds.

a steady girl friend can be a drag to writers of a TV series who like their characters flexible. The senior lawyer Preston had a wife in the pilot film of the series, but he became a widower when the program was sold.

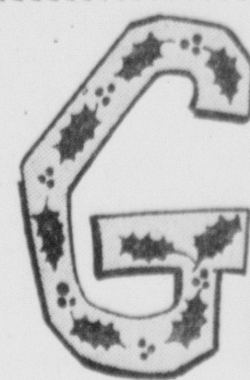

Mostly it means that Joan Hackett is an extremely talented young actress and—because she is not under contract to the series—is free to accept any other roles she chooses.

ON SATURDAY
After a four-month absence, she will turn up again as the love interest in Saturday's episode of "The Defenders."

Joan, in her mid-20s, is a Long Island girl—who still commutes to work from Elmhurst—and started her career as a model. Then she stepped smoothly into theater and achieved considerable success—including a notable part in "Call Me By My Rightful Name" and three acting awards.

Recommended tonight: Bob Hope Show, NBC, 9-10 (EST)—Bob's first special of the season, assisted by James ("Maverick") Garner, Nancy Kwan and Danny Thomas; Steel Hour, CBS, 10-11—Larry Blyden in a comedy, "My Wife's Best Friend."

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Sometimes many a boss goes home after a difficult day feeling he hasn't earned much money for his company. It haunts his evening.

Sometimes many a hired hand goes home with the same realization, but it doesn't always ruin his enjoyment of the twilight family meal.

But there is a way that a boss can make a personal profit during his working hours. This is to price his time by a meter as a potential parking space does to a visiting auto.

The boss can do the same thing with persons instead of motor cars. But he must vary the price of moments and hours clocked on the meter by the value he places on the time different visitors are worth in terms of his own measure of their importance.

HAS SERIOUS METER

Here is how this idea works:

As soon as you come into his smiling or frowning presence, you see a busy executive fronted by a large and serious meter.

The meter is a sophisticated one. It accepts paper currency as readily as it does coins. It automatically rejects checks and credit cards, letters from old friends, slaps on the back—anything except cash.

It has attached to it a large and conspicuous sign that reads:

"My time is valuable and here are the rates you must pay to use it. Please put your money in the meter in advance."

Asking for raises in salary, ordinary employees, $1 a second.

Asking for raises in commissions, top salesman only, $1 a minute.

TURNS METER OFF

Ex-girl friend who wonders why she didn't recognize how wonderful you were in college when gee! you're so wonderful now—boss turns meter off.

Life insurance salesman explaining why boss needs more protection—50 cents a minute, or one-half of his first year's commission, if he succeeds in selling the boss more.

Discussion with boss's uncle, the chairman of the board, on why the firm needs fresh talent—boss puts own money into meter.

Discussion with three after-lunch fellow golfing executives—five cents an hour. Boss puts in first nickel. Meter ticks on unpaid for next three hours.

Talk with junior executive—he puts in 15 cents to get meter back in business. Boss then raises rate to $1 a minute as he assures junior executive he has great future in firm.

DEBITS FOR REPAIRS

Someone comes in with an unexpected sales order—boss turns off meter, takes order, silently debits own sales manager for $187 in meter repairs.

A gentleman from Internal Revenue Service is announced—the boss throws his coat over his meter, stretches out a shirt-sleeved hand and says, "My time is your time—I hope I'm joking."

Finally, just before quitting time, the boss' wife enters.

She inserts a key into the parking meter by the desk of the boss, removes the contents, counts it, puts money into her oversize purse and says:

"George, you didn't do as well as yesterday. How many times do I have to tell you that time is money? Come, dear, it is time to go home. Tomorrow will be better."

NEW YORK (AP)—Jumping to conclusions:

Fat women are more generous than skinny women—at least to panhandlers. They are more likely to fall for a hard luck story.

I never trust a man who is too fond of those gooey cocktail canapes. Any man who can really enjoy that kind of food must have a deficiency of judgment or character in more important matters.

Nurses make the worst of all hospital patients, because they know how much a doctor doesn't know—and suspect some of the things he thinks he does know.

YOUTH'S THRILL

I never intend to name a cat in my will until, when I have a fever, one of them spends a sleepless night putting its paw to my forehead to take my temperature.

A boy gets a deeper thrill out of learning to make a shrill whistle through his teeth than a man does the day his bank account tops a million dollars.

The great virtue of much modern art is this: It gives as much pleasure to a blind person as to one who can see.

The least impressive executives to me are the ones who, when you phone them, have secretaries who invariably demand, "Who's calling, please?" What difference does it make who's calling? They're either there or they're not there.

You're a real married veteran if, no matter what your wife says to you, you figure she's picking on you.

GET OUT OF GAME

No man has a really happy life who has to start every morning off by taking bicarbonate of soda or a fizz tablet in water.

Whenever I meet anyone who is a chronic good loser, I don't particularly admire him. I think he's merely punchy from defeat—and ought to get out of the game for a while, no matter what the game is.

It isn't true that no one ever said a memorable thing at a party after midnight. But for every memorable remark a man makes at that hour, he usually spends two days wishing he had said something less memorable.

You hear a lot of jokes about the waiter who puts his thumb in the soup, but in all my life I have never seen this happen. Nor can I recall ever seeing a waiter spill hot soup on a patron.

MATCHES, CIGARETTES

The most annoying borrower in the office isn't the one who asks you for money. It's the one who is always fresh out of both cigarettes and matches. A man who runs out of cigarettes ought to at least have a match in his pocket.

Few things make a man feel more like a public benefactor than giving away a two-bit cigar to someone who really appreciates it.

I instinctively like a man who wears a vest and carries an old-fashioned pocket watch in it. They give him an air of sturdy independence, a disdain of the opinion of the mob.

You're middle-aged if you have to make two trips to the front door to fetch in your big Sunday newspaper.

A man who never does anything to excess in public always raises the suspicion in others that he is practicing a secret vice of some kind.

Never bet on a racehorse with short legs in a long race.

A man with a hole in both his socks needs either a wife—or a divorce.

NINE TO COMPLETE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Nine Pennsylvania high school agricultural groups will compete for top honors next month in the vocational agriculture school exhibition at the 1962 Farm Show.

Headlining the card will be defending champion Upper Perkiomen Joint High School of East Greenville which plans setting up an exhibit entitled "There's a Future in Your Farm Background."

The Montgomery County school won the 1961 title by posing out Parkland Union High School of Orefield, Lehigh County.

CHANGE POSITIONS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Two executives at Westinghouse Electric Corp. have changed positions.

In transfers announced Monday, E. V. Huggins becomes executive vice president of associated activities and George L. Wilcox takes over as vice president and deputy to Executive Vice President John K. Hodnette.

the 1961 legislature to draw a plan for the proper division of public welfare responsibilities and functions between the state and the counties.

It follows the consolidation in 1958 of the old welfare and public assistance departments into the Department of Public Welfare.

The agency also will create a new public welfare code for the 1963 legislature's consideration.

The Board of Public Welfare and appointees, named by the legislature and Gov. Lawrence make up the commission. Chairman is Harry Boyer, leading, state president of the AFL-CIO. Members are Herbert R. Wagaman, Lancaster, vice chairman, and Miss Rebecca Gross, Lock Haven, secretary.

EISENHOWER IS GIVEN MEDAL

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP)—Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower says "this nation is mankind's greatest hope in the fulfillment of freedom."

At the same time Monday Eisenhower called for a continuation of teaching of freedom's principles.

He made the remarks during ceremonies at which he was honored at the nearby Valley Forge Military Academy. The former president was presented with Freedom's Foundation's first "American Patriot's Medal."

In his acceptance speech, Eisenhower said:

"Our children must be taught what freedom is so they will become dedicated to their country."

He spoke of the dedicated patriotism of George Washington at Valley Forge.

"He stood up against criticism and neglect . . . and led an army to victory and became one of the founders of the nation," said Eisenhower.

Following the award presentation, Eisenhower laid the cornerstone for the first unit of the American Freedom Center, the Martha Washington Building, located at the national headquarters of the foundation here.

Kennedy Plotter Ready For Trial

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Richard P. Pavlick, 74, of Belmont, N.H., says he is ready to stand trial on a charge of plotting to assassinate President Kennedy.

Pavlick was arrested a year ago in Palm Beach, Fla. Pavlick told officers who found several sticks of dynamite in his car and motel room he planned to kill Kennedy because of "the underhanded way he was elected."

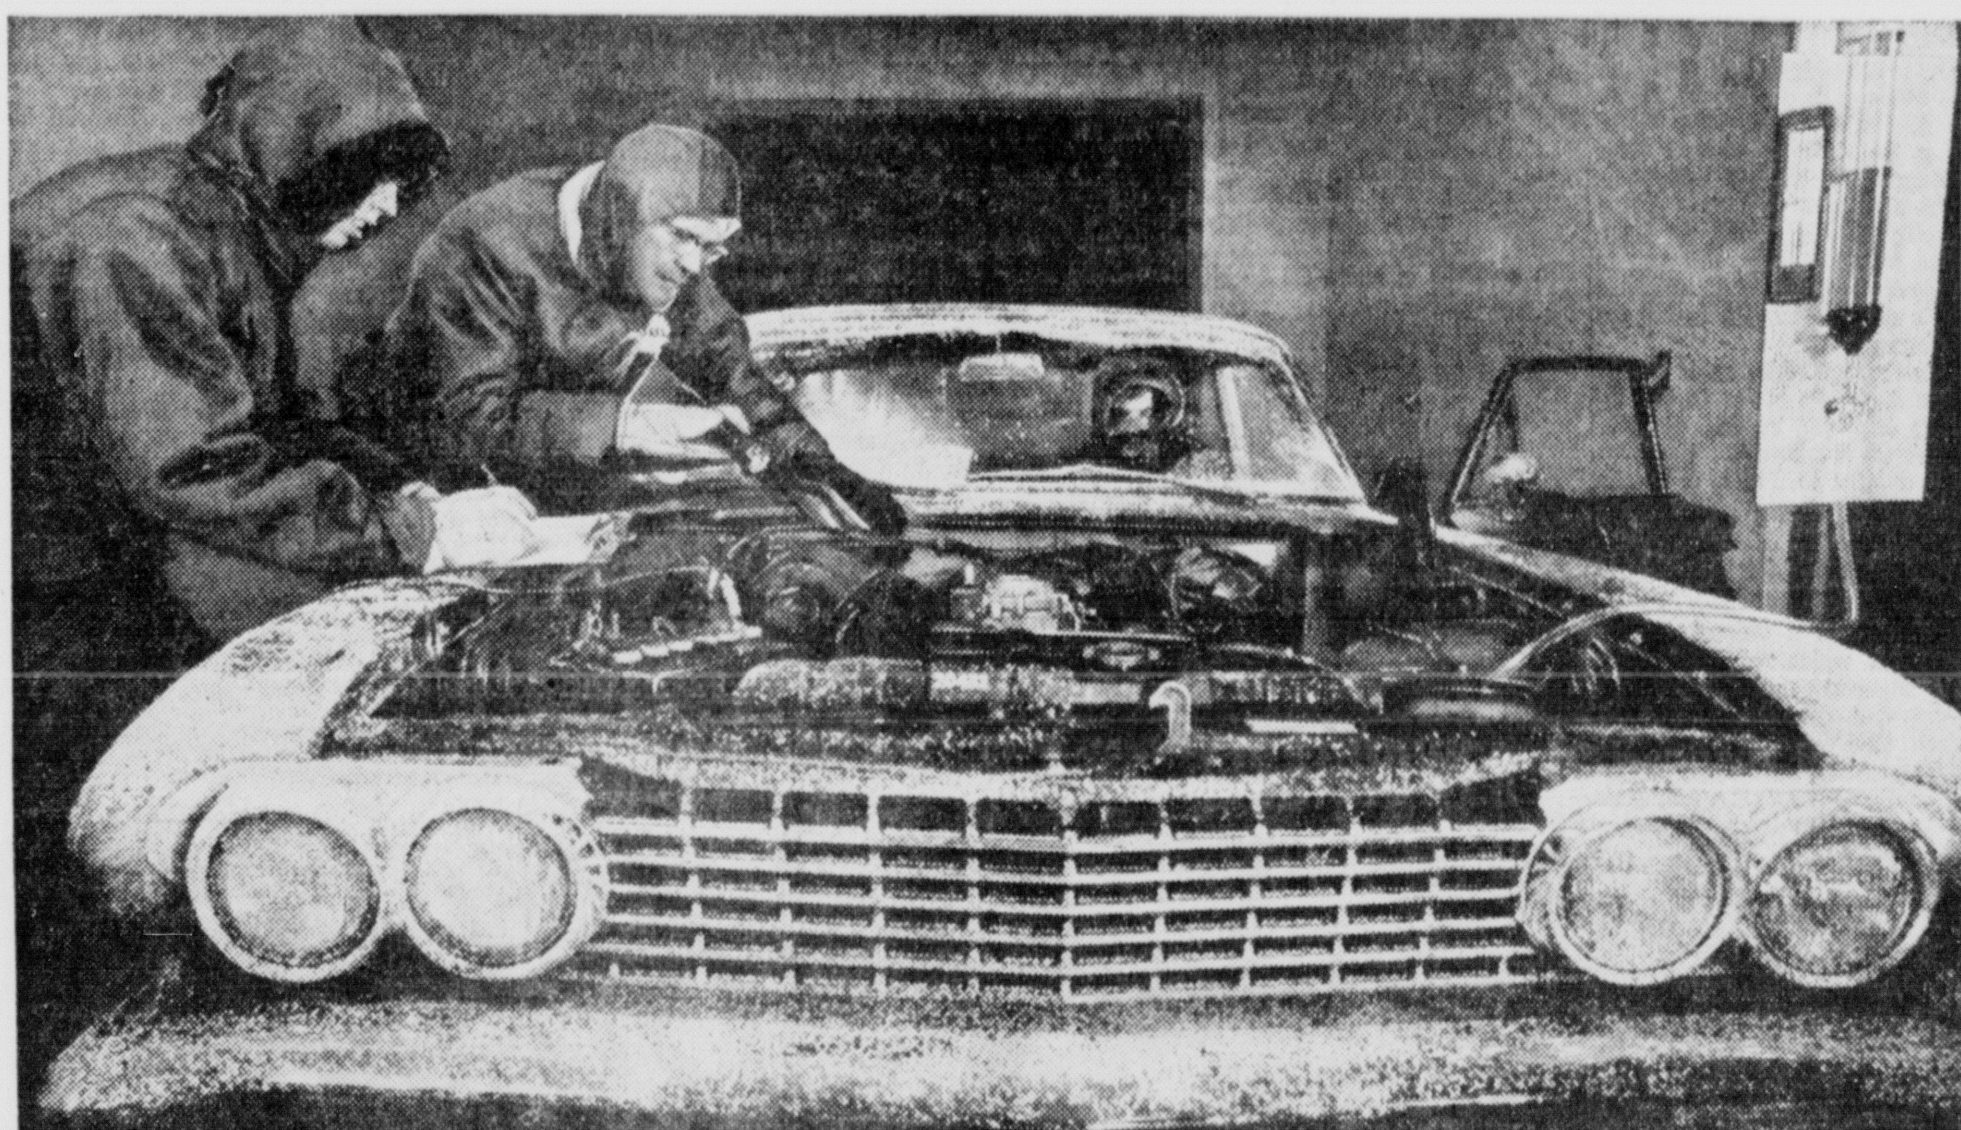

Pavlick has been held at the Federal Prison Medical Center in Springfield, Mo., under a law that permits an accused person to be held until he is mentally competent to stand trial.

You are inside Shell's new all-weather laboratory at Wood River, Illinois. Here, Shell scientists test Super Shell for top performance in bitter cold.

COLD NEWS:

Super Shell's 9 ingredients now include extra Butane for quick starts, Pentane mix for fast warm-ups and an anti-icer to help fight stalling—all tested for top performance in Shell's "40 below" lab.

THREE of Super Shell's nine ingredients work extra hard in winter to give you top performance.

Butane helps your engine start promptly on bitter-cold mornings. Pentane mix speeds the warm-up process. And an anti-icer helps guard your carburetor against critical ice build-up that can cause stalls.

Here's how Super Shell's winter blend is tested in Shell's new "40 below" lab.

1. How Super Shell's winter blend is tested for quick starts

To test for quick starts, a car—filled with Super Shell—is driven into the lab and left there. Temperature: a shivery zero degrees.

Twelve hours later, a well-bundled Shell engineer tries the ignition. The engine cranks, fights to catch hold and kicks over.

Shell scientists run cold-weather starting tests on a variety of cars. They insist that Super Shell start all of them promptly.

Butane—what it does. Butane is the quick-firing ingredient in Super Shell's winter blend. If you could remove it from the 9-ingredient formula, it would boil and turn to vapor even when poured on ice. This excellent volatility helps Super Shell to vaporize and start your engine quickly on frosty mornings. During coldest months, Super Shell gets an extra dose of Butane.

2. How Super Shell's winter blend is tested for fast warm-ups

For the warm-up test, temperature in the lab is lowered to about zero. A car, filled with Super Shell, soaks up the cold overnight.

Next morning, it is started and eased up to cruising speed. Suddenly, the driver pushes the accelerator pedal halfway to the floor. Did the car respond smoothly? Did it surge and fade?

From tests like this, Shell engineers and scientists learn how to adjust Super Shell for fast winter warm-ups.

Pentane mix—what it does. Super Shell's fast warm-up ingredient is Pentane mix. It works like kindling in a log fire. In this case, the "logs" are the heavier hydrocarbons in gasoline. The lighter Pentane molecules act as "kindling" for the entire blend and help your engine warm-up more quickly.

3. How Super Shell's winter blend is tested for anti-icing protection

In testing for protection against carburetor icing, lab temperature is raised to 40 degrees above zero. Moisture content of the air is also increased. Under those conditions, ice can readily form in your carburetor. Here's how:

Evaporating fuel can chill the inside of your carburetor—just as evaporating moisture cools your skin. Suddenly, your carburetor becomes freezing cold. The moisture in the air turns to ice and coats vital carburetor parts. Results: you stall.

The anti-icer—what it does. The anti-icer in Super Shell coats carburetor parts with a thin film. This helps to guard them against critical ice build-up. Thus, you get extra protection against carburetor icing stalls.

At Shell stations today

Super Shell's winter blend is at Shell stations today. Take a moment now to read about all 9 ingredients in today's Super Shell—what they are—and how they give your car top performance.

#1 is TCP* for power, mileage, and longer plug life.

#2 is Pentane mix for fast warm-ups.

#3 is anti-knock mix to resist all kinds of knocks.

#4 is gum preventive to help keep carburetors clean inside.

#5 is Butane for quick starts.

#6 is "cat-cracked" gasoline—for power.

#7 is an "anti-icer" to help check cold-weather stalling.

#8 is Alkylate to help control "high-speed knock."

#9 is Platformate for extra mileage.

PHILCO ADOPTS BUY FOOD PLAN TO CUT PAY FOR APPLIANCES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Philco Corp. has unveiled some details of a plan whereby a consumer can pay for appliances in part through regular weekly purchases at grocery supermarkets.

Philco calls it an "Instant Dividend Plan." A customer signs, let's say, for a food freezer and agrees to the usual time-payment sales contract with normal finance charges. If he wants to use the "Instant Dividend Plan" he agrees to some additional charges.

The monthly payments under the "instant" plan are reduced in relation to the amount of food and other goods purchased at participating stores.

GRADUATED SCALE

There is a graduated scale under which the member gets a $2.20 credit for $40 worth of purchases in a month, up to $10 credit for $182 in purchases.

Henry E. Bowes, Philco vice president and general manager of consumer products, outlined the plan Monday to newsmen. He said it has been tested in Pittsburgh and Johnstown, Pa., and Lincoln, Neb., and now is in effect in more than 200 stores on the West Coast and Pacific Northwest, the South, New York state and parts of New England. He declined to identify the particular stores.

Bowes gave this example of how it works:

The average family of four buys $120 worth of food a month. Under the graduated scale, they would get a $7.15 credit toward their time-payment on the appliance. If the appliance—including carrying charges—costs $200, or $10 a month for 20 months, the cost to the consumer with $7.15 credit a month would be $2.85 a month for the time payment.

It is thus possible, said Bowes, for an appliance buyer to end up paying only $57 instead of $200.

Financial workings of the plan as it applies to Philco and the stores are a closely held secret, said Philco.

CITES HUGE SLASH

The announcement drew immediate fire from a Chicago appliance firm, which said the plan spells financial ruin for appliance dealers and distributors. R. C. Connell, vice president of Eureka ABBOTTSTOWN—The annual Christmas banquet of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Abbottstown Fire Company was held at the New Oxford Fire Company hall Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m.

The Christmas party of the Emmanuel United Church of Christ will be held Saturday evening at 7 o'clock in the basement of the church.

The Lions Club will meet at the Altland House Thursday at 6:30 p.m. New members will be inducted.

The annual Christmas party for the kiddies of the town will be held by the Lions Club in the fire hall Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Paul Breighner and Kenneth Stauffer, near town, Saturday afternoon each shot a deer.

GETS $13,300 DAMAGES

LONDON (AP)—Richard Gilbert, 45, was mildly mannered and affable before a car knocked him from his motorcycle and he suffered brain injuries.

Afterward, his attorney said Monday in court, Gilbert became touchy, difficult and offensive, with a streak of nastiness he had not had before.

The court awarded Gilbert damages of 4,750 pounds—$13,300.

Williams Co., Chicago, said he also doubted the legality of the plan and said he had seen instances of food prices being padded in some stores offering it. Philco, in its announcement, said that all appliances would be "sold by and serviced by independent Philco dealers."

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — There's only one unknown remaining about President Kennedy's interview last month with a Soviet newsmen. What effect, if any, did it have on the Russian people or, rather, the Russian people who read it?

There's no doubt about the effect on the Soviet leadership, which would have been predictable anyway, since Kennedy pictured a peaceful America confronted with a trouble-making Russia.

The leadership, through its controlled press, ripped Kennedy's views apart. The interview was printed in full in Izvestia, the Russian government newspaper.

But Izvestia, in a country of 220 million people, has a circulation estimated at 4 to 5 million.

NOT MUCH IMPACT

If the Kennedy interview made a good impression on some of them, the leadership has sought to offset it. Even if the impression on all who read it was excellent, there isn't much they can do or say.

Since Kennedy's views are not going to appear at much length very often when they are critical of Russia, this interview can hardly be considered of much impact in the long run.

Even if the final score shows no hit, no runs and no errors—if nothing was won and nothing lost—the interview was at least on both sides one more effort in their long-winded propaganda war.

Kennedy could consider it an achievement that his views—those he found time to express in the interview—were printed in full in the Soviet press.

GAVE THREE INTERVIEWS

At the same time the Russian government gave itself a chance to say its press isn't entirely closed to the outside. As a matter of fact Russia would have been in an embarrassing spot if it hadn't printed the whole interview.

Three times this year Premier Khrushchev got his views across in great length to people in this country by giving interviews to American newsmen who journeyed to Russia to see him.

RENS' HAWKINS HAS SIGNS OF BECOMING STAR

PITTSBURGH (AP)—In the embryonic American Basketball League, they're raving about a 20-year-old phenom who's showing signs of rapidly developing into the circuit's super star.

He's Connie Hawkins of the Pittsburgh Rens. And he's possibly the biggest hit in this steel center since Bill Mazeroski slammed a baseball over the center field wall to win the 1960 World Series.

"Connie is one of the very best players in the league, if not the best," says Rens Coach Neil Johnston, one-time standout for the Philadelphia Warriors of the National Basketball Association. "He's a very colorful and electrifying player."

ALL-AROUND PLAYER

"At this stage of development, Connie is further along than anyone I've ever seen," adds Johnston, who spent eight years as a player and two years as a coach in the NBA. "He's a tremendous all-around player; a great scorer and a tremendous jumper. He's

This gave the lively Kennedy a good opening to look for the full treatment in return, in Russia, by giving a Soviet newsmen an interview.

The interview was arranged at the request of the White House and Khrushchev's son-in-law, Alexei Adzhubei, editor of Izvestia, did the questioning. The result wasn't quite the same as American interviews with Khrushchev.

RED SPEECHES

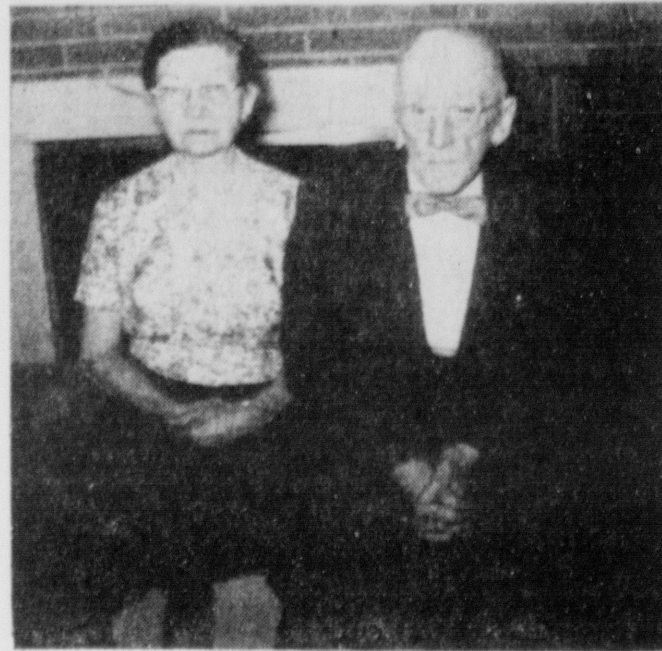

The Americans simply asked questions and let him do the talking.

Adzhubei also asked questions, but he sandwiched them in between long speeches giving Soviet views on problems Kennedy discussed.

Thus, while Kennedy got into Izvestia in full, he didn't dominate the scene as Khrushchev did in his question-and-answer sessions. The President had to share space in Izvestia with Adzhubei.

Maybe one result will be to make Khrushchev a little less willing to give Americans interviews if he feels he'll be expected to have Soviet newsmen talk with Kennedy and then print the results in full.

Coulsons Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Coulson, York Springs R. 1, recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married at the York Springs Lutheran parsonage by the Rev. Paul Gladfelter.

Mr. and Mrs. Coulson are the parents of four children: Evelyn Coulson Gerber, deceased; Marian Ramsey, Harrisburg; M. Francis Coulson, Biglerville, and Lena Worrell, Camp Hill. They have eight grandchildren.

The children and grandchildren joined in observing the anniversary by attending services at the Chestnut Grove Lutheran Church, near York Springs, with Mr. and Mrs. Coulson. The flowers on the altar were presented in their honor. Later the group had dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Worrell, Camp Hill.

Mrs. Coulson is a daughter of the late William and Sadie Albert and Mr. Coulson is a son of the late Francis S. and Melissa

YEOMAN FIFTH HOUSTON COACH

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — William F. (Bill) Yeoman is the University of Houston's fifth head football coach.

The 33-year-old backfield assistant at Michigan State was hired Tuesday by a screening committee that picked him unanimously.

Yeoman's salary and length of contract were not disclosed. He will replace Hal Lahar, who resigned in September but stayed on to coach the Cougars to a 6-6 season against tough opponents that included Alabama and Auburn.

It was sort of a birthday present for the former Texas A&M and Army player, who will be 34 Dec. 26.

wastes no time naming Trammell as the major reason for his team's success — a 10-0 record and the No. 1 national ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

"There have been more talented quarterbacks than Trammell," says Bryant. "But there has never been one that meant more to his team."

Although something short of sensational, he is a good passer (best in the Southeastern Conference with 75 completions in 133 throws for 1,035 yards), a strong runner (279 yards rushing), and the total offense leader of the SEC with 1,314 yards.

"I don't think I've met a nicer kid to coach or work with than Connie," Johnston says. "He's consistently trying to improve himself. I don't think he realized at the start how rough pro ball would be and he's had to adjust to that."

CANNOT PASS LEFT-HANDED

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. (AP)—Alabama Coach Paul Bryant says quarterback Pat Trammell does have a weakness.

"He can't pass left-handed," says Bryant.

But that's about the only weakness that shows when Trammell moves into action with the Alabama team that is heading for a Sugar Bowl date with Arkansas in New Orleans on Jan. 1.

Bryant, usually a slow man with public praise for his players,

VERY VERSATILE

"And Hawkins is more versatile than he has shown, too," McLendon added. "He has enough of a repertoire to double what he is doing."

Just what is the Brooklyn, N. Y., native doing? Well, according to the latest statistics, Hawkins leads the league in both scoring and rebounds. He's averaging 23.2 points and 14 rebounds a game while amassing 534 points. And he's hit on 47 per cent of his field goals and 76 per cent of his foul shots.

That's not bad for a kid whose only college experience was fresh-

WILT SCORES 22 OUT OF 42

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wilt Chamberlain, 7-foot-1 ace of the Philadelphia Warriors, on a tear that has given him 326 points in his last six games, hit for 22 field goals in 42 shots Tuesday night as the Warriors crushed Detroit 132-109 as part of an NBA doubleheader at Madison Square Garden.

The hapless New York Knicks dropped their fifth in a row, 126-124 to Syracuse, in the second game.

Chamberlain hit the first six free throws he tried and 10 of 14 during the game. He scored 54 points altogether.

The Warriors, with Tom Gola and Guy Rodgers also scoring consistently, built a 26-point lead over the Pistons just before the half and Detroit never got closer than nine points after that.

Hal Greer hit 33 points and Dave Gambee 23 for Syracuse, which fought back the last-place Knicks after New York had pulled to within one point at 110-109 with 6:45 left.
